

Isaac Henry's Will.

I Isaac Henry of Washington and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory and being further more sensible of approaching dissolution do make and ordain this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and annuling all other and former wills by me made 1st after the payment of all my just debts wrote and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth the house in which I now live with the garden lot and all out buildings and all the house-hold and kitchen furniture thereunto pertaining during her life. In my will and bequeath to my de-lack girl Esther and child to wait upon her during her life 3d My wife to be an equal heir with my children to all my real and personal estate not before bequeathed with such exceptions as shall be made hereafter 4th To my children I other to Henry, Verathan, S. Henry, Thomas R. Henry, Louisa Brown, Mary Henry & Isaac R. Henry equal share of all my real estate including besides the home tract the tract upon which my mother lies adjoining the lands of Joshua Henry, Jacob R. Braggs and others

5th The boys Brown and Houston to be sold and the proceeds to be equally distributed among my children 6th The cash and notes to be divided equally among my wife and children 7th I appoint Jonathan S. Henry and Thomas R. Henry my executors of this my last will and Testament and in justice to my other children they are required to give such security as shall be approved by the County Court.

In testimony of which will I write affix my hand seal this 4th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred forty. etc.

Signed Sealed
and delivered in the presence of

E. Henry

(See Minute Record (Leger) 1842 to 1847, Pages 384 & 385, for an explanation of the foregoing wills, which accounts for the same not being signed)

J. H. Anderson, D.C.

James Ford's Will.

In the name of God Alme & James Ford of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee being very weak and low of body but of perfect mind and memory and calling into mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die to make and ordain this my last will and Testament First I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God to dispose of as he sees proper and Secondly I give my body to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial and as touching this worldly estate where in it falleth please God to bless me First I give and bequeath unto my daughter of Grant Ford namely Elizabeth and Cassy Ford my two bed and Secondly I give and bequeath unto Rebecca Ford my two tracts of land containing in all one hundred and thirty three acres of land In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of January eighteen hundred and forty five

Witnesses

James Ford Esq.
William B. Proffitt M. D. his signature will was duly proven in open court Daniel B. Proffitt by the oaths of Wm. B. and Dan'l B. Proffitt he the subscribing witness thereto at the town of Lenoir 1846 of County Lenoir and County Lenoir

James Ford Esq.
mark

State of Tennessee I, Jane Beale, in the name of God Alme, living Washington County sound mind and memory calling to mind the certainty of death and the uncertainty of his mortal life do hereby make, renew and constitute this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills who verbatim or written by me at any time made, in manner and form following, viz:

1st after my funeral expenses are defrayed I wish all my just debts to be paid out of my estate. — 2nd I give and bequeath unto my two sons Archibald J. Beale and James A. Beale at my death the tract of land that I bought of Mr. Davis the one I now live upon containing seventy eight acres more or less, by the said Archibald J. Beale and James A. Beale paying to Mr. Davis no daughter Elizabeth and Mary, one hundred dollars apiece, an amount but no notes whereby come to be eighteen years of age also that they pay the Board of Trustees of Washington College twenty five dollars in current bank notes in the term of five years. — 3rd I also give the said Archibald J. Beale and James A. Beale now proprietors of the farm and of my house they are also to have the management of the farm by them furnished

Alice Doak's Will. (continued)

natural life. I also have the privilege of keeping as much stock in the place as I see proper while I live. Lastly, I appoint my two sons to be called A. Doak and James A. Doak Executors of this my last will and testament which I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 1st September 1840.

(Signed)

William Brown,

Daniel M. Barnes

Joshua Green

Alice Doak (Seal)

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of William Brown and Joshua Green, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto at the ^{in the year 1849} September Term of the County Court, and ordered to be recorded.

Catharine Miller's Will.

Be it remembered that Catharine Miller of the County of Washington and State of Minnesota do publish this my last will and testamant hereby revoking all former wills or wills by me made, in manner and form as follows: First, I give my soul to God who gave it, and my body to be buried in a Christian like manner. Second, My will and desire is that all my just debts be fully paid. Third, My will and desire is that all my personal property of every kind that is beloved son-in-law and daughter Sarah and Margaret Sell shall have ^{not} it at my death. Fourth, My will and desire is that the amount of money ^{not} I may have at my decease if any my son-in-law and daughter Adam Sell and Margaret Sell is to have.

5th, My will and desire is that Maria White be my Executor.

6th, My desire is that security shall not be required of Executor.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 9th day of November 1842.

John Longmire,

George French,

Mary & Sell

Catharine Miller (Seal)

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of John Longmire and George French, two of the subscribers thereto at the November Term of the County Court for the year 1848, and ordered to be recorded.

Benjamin McLoons Will.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Benjamin McLoon of Washington County in the State of Minnesota being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and understanding and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous of settling my mortal affairs, and thereby be better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following: That is to say -

First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor hereinafter named and after my debt and funeral charges are paid by my wife and bequeath as follows:

I am 1st to give and devise unto Richard McLoon my brother all my real and personal estate to him the said Richard McLoon and his heirs and executors lawfully constituting and appoint Richard McLoon my brother to be the Executor of my last will and testament, revoking and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty three.

Benjamin McLoon (Seal)

Signed, sealed and published and declared by Benjamin McLoon the above named Testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Jonathan Rush,

William B. Rush,

George A. Rush

The above will was duly proven in open Court by the oaths of Jonathan Rush and William B. Rush at the February Term of County Court 1849, and ordered to be recorded.

Elizabeth Aikins' Will.

In the name of God, Amen! I, Elizabeth Aikins of the County of Washington and State of Minnesota being in perfect possession of my mental faculties, but diminished by my increasing infirmities and advanced age of my mortality do make and re-make this my last will and testament, to wit: To my beloved grand-daughter Catharine Braddock, I will and bequeath during her natural life of my negro man Elia to commence immediately after my death. To my beloved grand-daughter Adelaidie E. Cummins, formerly Adelaidie E. Clegg, I will and bequeath the services of my negro boy Bill the son of Elia aforesaid until he is twenty one years of age, or shall said boy Bill be of a age, or less than four years.