

Jane Allison's Will.

In the following manner Item 1st I give and bequeath to my two daughters Polly Ann Couly and Harriah E Thompson whatever money may be in the hands of Duncan & Blairs and in the hands of John F Deacon at the time of my death to be equally divided between

Item 2nd - The residue of my estate of every description after paying my just debts and funeral expenses my will and desire is that it be equally divided between my two daughters Polly Ann Couly and Harriah E Thompson and my three grand children Amanda Jane Ruple, Harriet Ruple and Robert A Ruple to be divided among the five. I have ever shared alike. But should any of my grand children named die before they arrive at the age to receive their portions without issue then and in that case the estate is to be equally divided between the legates sharing alike. My will and desire is that the portions left to my grand children shall remain in the hands of my executors, hereafter to be named until they arrive at the following ages (to wit:) Amanda Jane & Harriet Ruple at eighteen and Robert A Ruple at the age of twenty one years

And further my will and desire is that whereas at the death of my daughter Nancy Ruple and Rebeck Ruple some articles that had been given to them again fell into my hands, it is now understood that by the legacies left their children and my grand children named in this will they are indemnified and no other notice to be taken of ~~them~~ such articles

And lastly I nominate and appoint my two sons William Robert A Thompson and such being executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore by me made, and it is my will that they be exempt from giving security for the performance of the duties now imposed on them

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of July 1855.

William Jacksons Will.

In the name of God Amen.

I William Jackson of the County of Washington being being weak in body but of sound mind and memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament in form following to wit

William Jacksons Will.

I recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth, to be buried by my Executors in a decent and Christian like manner, and as touching my worldly estate, I do order and direct as follows, firstly I give and bequeath the tract of land on which I now live, which I purchased of Dodson, supposed to contain one hundred and twenty acres to my son Willie Jackson, his heirs and assigns forever

Secondly I will and bequeath to my son Smith Jackson and his heirs and assigns forever, eighty-two acres of the upper end of the tract I live on, the same being either more or less.

Thirdly I give and bequeath to my daughter Barbara Jackson a tract of land conveyed to me by Lotte & Lotte and another adjoining thereto, containing in the whole one hundred and forty six acres and one half, be the same more or less, to be and remain to said Barbara, her heirs and assigns forever.

Fourthly - It is my will and desire that my negro slaves, named by, Joseph, Marshall, Dick, Alice, and Elliot, be hired out to humane reason, until they respectively arrive to thirty years of age, & then to be set free by my Executors hereafter named, and it is my wish that said slaves until their freedom shall be shared to those that will treat them kindly, and furnish them with good warm comfortable clothing

Fifthly - It is my will and desire that the proceeds of the labor of said slaves, shall be equally divided among all of my children share and share alike.

Sixthly - It is my will and desire that my son Willie Jackson shall have one half of my grain crop here now on my farm, both that which is cut and the corn that is growing.

Seventhly - It is my will and desire is, that my daughter Barbara Jackson, shall have twenty bushels of wheat and sixty bushels of corn out of my crop that is raised and growing

Eighthly - My will and desire is that all the hay on my farm shall be cut and secured and equally divided, between my son Willie and my daughter, Barbara Jackson, share and share alike

Ninthly - It is my will and desire that my son Willie Jackson, Smith Jackson and my daughter Barbara Jackson shall have a cow and calf each of them own choosing

Tenthly - It is my will and desire that my daughter Barbara shall have her choice of all my horses, that is one of them and shall also have a saddle and a bridle worth twenty five dollars, to be paid for out of my estate

Eleventhly - I also wish and desire that my daughter
