In the name of God I, William Clap being weak of body but of sound mind do make this my last will and testament. First, my will is that so much of my property be sold as will pay my just debts and secondly my beloved wife Sarah have the remainder of all the rest of my estate both personal and real for her natural lifetime, and then be divided equally between all my children in testimony of the above, I seal this my last will and testament this 29th day of May 1851.
