

Ira Green's Will.

In the name of God, amen, I, Ira Green, of the County of Washington and State of Georgia, being sick and weak in body, but of sound mind and disposing judgment, calling to mind the certainty of death and the uncertainty of this life, do make, constitute and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following, viz: Section 1st. I give and bequeath to my wife Mary Green (for the use of herself and her simple daughter Amanda E. Green, and Melinda J. H. Green) during her life the South half of my mansion house situated from the basement to the top including one half of the passage lot; also the South end of my stable as far as two stalls extend; also, the lot of ground known by the name of the "Orchard field," together with the garden and the lot at the North east end of the house enclosed with a plank fence. I also give to my wife all the household and kitchen furniture of every kind and description, and also the said girls have their house or go to themselves it is my will that each of them shall have as much household furniture as their rather may see proper to give them; also, that my wife have two sheep and their lambs, and all my remaining hogs and hens. It is further my will that soon after my death that my Executor, hereafter to be named shall set apart and assign for the use of the family such an amount of grain that may be on hand that he may think necessary for their support until another crop is raised. Section 2^d. It is my will that after my death my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid out of the first money that may come into the hands of my Executor, and for the purpose of raising means to discharge said debts, I wish my Executor to rent all my lands that are in this country not otherwise directed to be disposed of and convert the proceeds thereof into cash and apply it with the proceeds of the sale of any other property that may be left not otherwise disposed of to the payment of said debts, and the said Executor is hereby authorized to rent, make sales, rents, or of any other property either publicly or privately as he may think best. In my will that my Executor sell as soon after my death as practicable, a tract of land in Greene County on the South side of Chuckey river on which I gave a deed of trust some years since to Peter Earrell and son to secure the payment of a certain sum of money therein specified. My Executor is hereby authorized to sell said tract of land either at public or private sale the whole tract together or by dividing it as he may think best for the interest of the estate and pay the amount to the Messrs Earrell for which the land stands bound, and apply the remainder, if any, to the liquidation of other debts. There is another tract of land lying on the South side of the river containing twenty five acres adjoining the lands of Lawrence Glaze and Jacob Peeler, I will that my Executor sell said land to the best advantage, and apply the proceeds to the payment of my debts. There are several land entries in Greene and Washington Counties of small value, which I wish my Executor to look after, and if they will sell for anything to sell them for whatever they will bring, and apply it in the same way as the above.

Section 3^d. After the death of my wife, it is my will that the plantation on which I now live, and also a small tract which I own at the mouth of the branch be equally divided between the following named children,

Paternal McRoberts, J. A. Green, R. B. Green, Sarah Zimmerman, Adam B. Green, Amanda E. Green and Melinda J. H. Green, and if a majority of said heirs should wish the land sold, then in that case, it is my will that my Executor sell the land and divide the proceeds equally between the before mentioned heirs. Section 4th. I give and bequeath to my son J. A. Green, a small house called Hobie. Section 5th. I give and bequeath to my sons Adam B. Green a gray roan calliehill a bay horse called Charley, and a black horse called Clegg; also a saddle and bridle. Section 6th. It is my will that after the death of Adam Broyles Senior, if my Executor think fit to add to the interest of my estate that he employ legal counsel to examine the last will and testament of old Adam Broyles, and if it is not in accordance with a certain bond or agreement entered into by the sd Broyles with the son of Reuben Broyles, then and in that case to enter and prosecute a suit for the faithful compliance with the conditions of said bond, and in case such suit is brought, my estate shall stand bound for any cost that may accrue in the prosecution of such suit. In addition to the first section, it is my will that my wife be furnished with a sufficiency of firewood, cut and hauled to her yard as she may need it, and be paid for by my Executor out of the rents of the place. Respecting the crop of wheat that is now growing, my will is that when harvested the third of it go into the hands of my Executor for the use of my estate, and the remaining two thirds to those who sowed it. Lastly, I constitute and appoint my friend and son-in-law, William H. C. Roberts, Executor of this my last will and testament, witness my hand and seal this 31st day of September 1847.
