 this instrument of writing my last will & testament in the following manner to wit Item I give & bequeath to my beloved wife Anne Hale all my personal estate together with all my household furniture lenses & linencloth garment ~~etc~~ & every other thing that I now possess during her natural life to her & dispose of as I shall think best if there should be more property than she should happen to keep my will is that it be valued by two constablestis persons chosen by my executors and if any of my children will take same property at the valuation for it to be demanded out of their part of my estate if none of them will take it then for my executors to sell & dispose of as they may think — ~~as my property~~. My will is that after the death of my wife all my estate be equally divided among my children except my girls and my will is that each of them have the sum of thirty three dollars & an half more than the boys Thirtly my will is that upon the death of my wife all my estate but the said air property of and not otherwise willed by me be valued by two constablestis men chosen as above mentioned and be divided among my children if they can agree and if they do not agree then to be sold and equally divided by my executors Fourthly I give & bequeath to my good daughter Sarah Hale daughter of my son George a boy col. an feather bed and furniture — Fifthly my will is that my dear Negro wench be left free after the death of my wife Thirtly & I do now & then to the best of my knowledge & memory state
