Joseph H. Bowman's Will

I KNOW all men by these presents that I Joseph Bowman, of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being sick and weak in body but in perfect mind and judgment, do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament over all former Wills and Testaments. First my will and desire is that after my decease that my body shall be decently buried in the graveyard at the Meeting house in plain Christian bier.

In the next place my will is that all my just and lawful debts shall be paid out of my estate, and the balance of my estate to be divided as follows:

First, my will and desire is that my beloved wife Christina Bowman, shall have my house and farm during her life; then to belong to David and Joseph my two youngest sons in the manner named in the close of this Will. David and Joseph my two sons are also to maintain and to provide all things necessary to the well being and support of my wife during her life, and when she departs this life to bury her decently where I am buried. I also will that if David and Joseph should fail to furnish all things necessary for her support she is to have full power to get what she pleases to use the land, and furnish her support.

Secondly, my will and desire is that my oldest daughter Sarah Ann Hanks to have the tract of land in which she now lives with her husband James Hanks, containing 119 acres during her natural life, then to the heirs of her to day.

Thirdly, my will and desire is that my eldest son John H. Bowman not to have anything more than I have already given him which is eight hundred dollars in the farm on which he now lives, to which I made him a good and lawful title and took his receipt for eight hundred dollars less the portion that I now give to him if this receipt should not be found among my papers, this is not to alter this will. I think more than likely it is lost.

Fourthly, my will and desire is that my second daughter Eliza with Parker is not to have anything more than I have already given her namely, four hundred and fifty dollars, in cash, that I paid to the heirs of James for land the title to which was made to Henry Parker for which sum of money I took no receipt, though this is not to affect this will in any form whatever.

Fifthly, my will and desire is that my third daughter Mary Shaat is to have four hundred and fifty dollars as a legacy out of the money that I paid for the tract of land on which she now lives with her husband Henry Shaat, the title of which was made to Henry Shaat and his wife, and then to their heirs in a peculiar manner as the title will show, and the balance over and above the four hundred and fifty dollars that I paid for said land which my papers will show, Henry Shaat and his wife ^{Henry} Shaat ^{will} ^{not} ^{pay} ^{over} ^{this} ^{will} ^{to} ^{my} ^{executors} to pay over into the hands of my executors.

Sixthly, My will and desire is that my second son Daniel Bowman is not to have any more than I have already given him, which is eight hundred dollars in hand which he now lives to which I made him a good and lawful title and took his receipt for eight hundred dollars his portion of my estate. I also told him to note when the amount of which is two hundred dollars that he is bound by this will to pay over into the hands of my executors.

Seventhly, My will and desire is that my fourth daughter Esther the Lear and her husband John Lear to have four hundred and fifty dollars out of what I paid toward land for her the title of which was made to Esther Lear her husband; I also took no receipt from John Lear, and his wife for the four hundred and fifty dollars, though this is not to affect this will in any form, whether all the money over and above the four hundred and fifty dollars that I paid to pay said land as my papers will show, John Lear and his wife are ^{not} ^{bound} ^{to} ^{pay} ^{over} ^{into} ^{the} ^{hands} ^{of} ^{my} ^{executors}. To be more explicit I paid a debt for David Lear the father of John the amount of which was six hundred dollars, which would leave me hundred and fifty dollars that John is bound to pay to the estate.

Eighthly, My will and desire is that my fifth and young
