Christian Gettys Will

I Christian Gettys of the County of Washington and State of Louisiana do make and ordain this as my last will and testament, believing it a duty to dispose of my property with which Providence has kindly blessed me. I make, ordain & appoint the distribution of my estate in the following manner.

First. That my deceased son be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, and that the expenses thereof with sole my just debts be first paid out of my estate.

Second. That the residue of my estate with real and personal shall answer the demands of my executors to and remain for the use of my surviving brother during his natural life, with the exception of the debts and damages on hand, and that he have living debts out of the money as soon as it can be collected.

Third. That after the death of my beloved wife my executors need to sell the residue of my estate with real and personal at either private or public sale as by my will set and make little to the same and under the process as herein after directed.

4. To my daughters, say Lucy Parker, Christiana Young, Hannah Hottenbarger and Elizabeth Hinkle, share and share alike with the following exceptions, namely that Christiana Young shall have only ten dollars less than my other before mentioned daughters, also having therefrom got of me the sum, and to Elizabeth Hinkle one hundred dollars over and above my other daughters for services rendered that I have not hitherto paid her for.

5. That my executors collect the notes that I have as soon as convenient and distribute the same share and share alike ~~between~~ among my before named daughters Mary Christiana, Hannah and Elizabeth. I also consider that I have given to my son Christian Gettys his share of my estate.

6th and last. I hereby nominate and appoint my son-in-law George Hinkle executor of this my last will and testament in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 10th day of February 1836.
