

Wife

Benjamin Crane's Will.

In the name of God Amen

I Benjamin Crane of Washington County and State of Tennessee being although an infirm and weak in body but of sound and disposing mind, do constitute this my last will and testament and desire it to be received by all as such.

First I give my body to the earth from whence it was taken. As for my burial, I leave it may be decent, at the discretion of my dear wife and my executors hereafter named. As to my worldly estate I will and positively order that all my just debts be paid.

Secondly - I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Rachael all and sundry my lands, estates, free and to hold as a full and unqualified right of inheritance forever; also all and sundry parcels of property pertaining to my estate, as well as to the holding thereof, house hold furniture, and what shall be hereafter otherwise disposed of.

Thirdly - I will and bequeath to my daughter Anne Barrin my bay mare, black, which I now ride.

Fourthly - I will and bequeath to my young son Miles my great grand son my shot gun.

Fifthly & lastly - I do constitute and appoint my wife Rachael executrix and John A. Miles executor of this my last will and testament and desire that it may be received by all as such. In testimony hereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this 9th day of October in the year of our Lord 1840.

Witness my hand.

I do hereunto

John Blair

W. R. Blair

Benjamin Crane

The foregoing will was proven in open court by the Oaths of John Blair and W. R. Blair subscribing witnesses, this 10th day of October 1840.

Andrew Hannan's Will.

The will of Andrew Hannan of his real and personal estate. I Andrew Hannan of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory and being called to mind by the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life do make this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows. That is first, after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane Hannan all my plantation wherein I now live during her natural life, including the mansion house, barn, grinding machine and all other buildings belonging to said farm; also my grey horse, black mare and my driving mare also my wagon and gear. Together with all my farming utensils. I also bequeath to her all my stock of hogs, sheep and cattle, also all of my house hold and kitchen furniture and kitchen furniture which may not otherwise be disposed of by my will.

Secondly - I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucinda Hannan my black horse, this is also one hundred dollars in cash out of the money due me at my death also two cows and one horse and that I purchased of J. A. Hannan also two beds, trunks and suitable covering and as much as I purchased and kitchen furniture as her mother may think proper to give her.

Thirdly - I give and bequeath unto my daughter Lucinda Hannan my young black horse, two cows, one bureau with carved columns two beds, trunks and suitable covering. Also one hundred dollars in cash out of the money due me at my death and as much as I purchased and kitchen furniture as her mother may see proper to give her.

Fourthly - I give and bequeath unto my grand son James Patton my rifle gun and my salmoot bureau.

Fifthly - I give and bequeath to my wife Jane the note in the benefit of a note executed to James Patton of thirteen dollars for one hundred and twenty five dollars.

Sixthly - I give and bequeath unto my daughter in law Jane Hannan one cow called Whiteface.

Seventhly - After the decease of my wife I do hereby authorize my executors to sell my real estate and what personal property I may have left.

Andrew Hannah's Will.

Equally divided between my children viz: Benjamin Anderson
Margaret Dasky, Esther D. Hannah John D. Hannah
Lucinda J. Hannah & Amanda D. Lyman

Wighth I do constitute and appoint my wife Sarah Hannah executrix and Joshua Green & John D. Lyman Co-executors of this my last will and testament and do hereby revoke all former wills. Witness my hand and seal this 30th day of April 1838

Last
his William
C. P. Matthe

Andrew Hannah

The foregoing will was proven in the Court of the County of C. S. Matthe one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and to death & hand writing of said William pro-by John Patten at May Term 1838

John Millions Will.

In the name of God Amen

I John Millions of Washington County and State of Tennessee considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being weak in body but of sound mind and memory, blessed be almighty God for the same, I do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say: First, My wish is that all of my just debts be paid. I then give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah my house and plantation or tract of land whereon I now live, containing one hundred and thirty acres more or less, together with the farming tools and all of the household furniture attached thereto also one horse and one cow, two sheep and three hogs and one hundred dollars in money, now due my beloved wife is to have and to hold the above named property and money, enduring her natural life, and at my wife Sarah's death the above named tract of land must be sold and the money equally divided between my daughter Polly May and my son Edward Millions heirs and my son John Millions and my daughter Sarah Millions the above named hundred dollars and the other above named property given to my wife, the my wife Sarah is to have and to hold it her own and dispose of it as it may suit herself.
I then give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Millions

John Millions Will.

a young mare that she has claimed as hers before and two cows and two hundred dollars, be it understood that she my daughter is to have the above named two hundred dollars and then she my daughter Sarah is to have an equal divide of all money that may be left of my estate beside the above named two hundred dollars. My tract of land that joins Joseph Miller and Ruben Bayles, Kate and others, containing one hundred and twenty acres, more or less must be sold & the rest of my property that I have not given to my wife and daughter Sarah must be sold. I give and bequeath to my daughter in law Elizabeth Millions the full sum of five dollars and no more. I give and bequeath to my grand son Jacob Millions the full sum of five dollars and no more. After all my just debts are paid the balance of money belonging to my estate is to be divided equally between my daughter Polly May and my son Edward Millions heirs and my son John Millions and my daughter Sarah Millions.

Lastly I appoint my beloved wife Sarah Millions and my son John Millions executors of this my last will and testament, revoking all other wills by me made in writing, hereof I have signed set my hand and seal this twenty second day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty two signed sealed and delivered in presence of us
Adam Stogam
Allen Ryker
Robert Millions

John Millions

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of Adam Stogam Allen Ryker two of the subscribing witnesses at Spring Term 1842.

John Bowman's Will.

I John Bowman of the State of Tennessee being Washington County being now in feeble health but of sound mind and memory but knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, and such being my mind I have made this my last will and testament