Isaac Johnston's Will.

(about 225)

I make this as my last will and testament. With regard to my temporal affairs it is my Will and Wish first of all, that my debts be paid. I do not wish any man of my property sold. This will effect that purpose. After that, whatever balance there may be remaining, whether it be real or personal, by gift or assent or otherwise, whatever within my control I give to my wife Elizabeth C. Johnston, to keep her use and disposal. I request of her to make some provision in her lifetime for the emancipation of our colored people at her decease; it is not my wish that they should remain in bondage after our decease. For in now that this will shall be carried into effect I do hereby appoint my wife my Executor; then under my hand this 1st day of December 1847. Signed, sealed and acknowledged in presence of William C. Chaney, Isiah Stewart, James S. Johnston Great Seal

The foregoing will was duly proven in open Court, February Term 1848, by the oath of the witnesses thereto and entered to be on record; also the Court qualified &c.

Jane Hannah's Will.

Abraham Miller's Will.

Abraham Miller of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any other time made. First, I direct that my funeral expenses, and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any money that I may die possessed of, and may first come into the hands of my Executor. Secondly, I give to William Eliza Miller and my daughter Sarah Ann Miller, twenty dollars each to be placed in the hands of a guardian for their use when they come of age. Thirdly, I will that my mare and all my personal property be sold to the best advantage, and the proceeds, with all other moneys on hand after paying the above bequests, be equally divided
