

Alexander McKie Will

I now live after a full and sufficient maintenance taken out for his Mother during her natural life than to fall into his hands during his natural life and at his death to pass into the hands of his eldest son Alex McKie if he should survive his father and if not to be equally divided among his other heirs if he should have any to survive him if not to fall into the hands of my Brother John McKie his children likewise with the all my personal estate should be sold if at public Vendue within twelve months after my decease, and him to have the amount of said sale in his hands during his natural life but he to be accountable for the same to his heirs as appears in the will, I appoint William Hemmons my son Robert McKie & John Nelson Executors of this my last will & Testament To It that this my last will and Testament is duly executed in all its different bequestments and I do hereby null & make void all wills and testaments by me heretofore made and make this my last will whereunto I have set my hand and seal in presence of July 10th 1812

Witness present -

Hugh Ware

William McKie

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Hugh Ware and William McKie the subscribing witnesses Thence at November Session 1812 & ordered to be recorded - Robert McKie & William Hemmons qualified as executors to the foregoing will -

William Ingles Will

I William Ingles of Washington County and State of Tennessee being in a lawful state of health but being of sound mind & memory and being in my perfect senses do make this my last will & Testament of all my real & personal estate to be so inasmuch as I think I shall please God that I should declare before my wife Margaret Ingles that she shall have all my real and personal estate to do with & for her support during her natural life and if she should be removed by sickness or otherwise incapable of supporting herself and become chargeable to her friends or neighbors it is to be paid out of my said estate and after her decease it is to be equally between my five children Jemima Adam Ingles Michael Ingles Catherine Warrington Mary Fann and Elizabeth Ingles and their heirs and my love that of Elizabeth Ingles should get her daughter Mary a new one made he is to have it & if she should die then the Child is to be the property of the said Mary at my wife's death & if my wife should give or let Burke Ingles have any thing he is to be charged with it and made pay it and absolve my wife Margaret Ingles & Adam Ingles executors of this my last will & Testament as witness my hand & seal this 17th day of April 1807

William Ingles (Seal)

Laet Brown

Wither Linsbury

Wm Lashbrook

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Laet Brown and Wither Linsbury two of the subscribing witnesses Thence at November Session 1812 & ordered to be recorded Adam Ingles qualified as executor to the foregoing will

Peter Hop Will

In the Name of God Amen

I Peter Hop of Washington County State of Tennessee being weak in body but of sound mind and judgment bless God for the same do publish & make this my last will and Testament in manner & form following - First I give & bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah Hop all my personal estate consisting of the plantation wherein I now live with my household furniture and movable property of every kind except stock as hereafter directed by my will in life or widowhood also the sum of thirty dollars in cash immediately after my death Secondly I give and bequeath unto my first born & beloved son John P. Hop the half of the plantation wherein I now live to be divided equally with respect to quantity and quality & when off of the lower end of said tract and the sum of twenty five dollars in cash immediately after his coming of age Thirdly I give & bequeath unto my two daughters Mary Hop & Elizabeth Hop the sum of twenty five dollars to each of them after they come of age and all my household furniture to be equally divided between them - Fourthly and lastly I give & bequeath unto my beloved son Jacob Hop the upper part of my plantation after my beloved wife's decease and the sum of twenty five dollars in cash after he comes of age and all my stock to be divided equally among my four children after they come of age and my beloved wife to have a Child out of the stock - And I hereby appoint my beloved wife executrix and Henry Hop executor of this my last will and Testament hereby overruling all former wills by me made in writing wherof I have been made at my home and had the 30th day of April in the year of our Lord 1807 - Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Peter Hop as are the under named her witnesses subscribed our names as witnesses - Henry Hop & Jacob Hop

Peter Hop (Seal)

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Henry Hop and Jacob Hop the subscribing witnesses Thence at November Session 1812 & ordered to be recorded - Sarah Hop & Henry Hop qualified as executrix & executor of the foregoing will -

Thomas McAdams Will

In the Name of God Amen

This third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven I Thomas McAdams of the County of Washington & State of Tennessee being weak in body but of sound mind and as strong memory thank God for all his mercies and calling to mind the mortality of my body and that it is appointed for all men once to die do make known & constitute this present instrument of writing my last will & Testament in manner & form following to wit - First & principally I commend my immortal soul unto God who gave it and my body to the earth to be interred in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my executors or their assigns and as touching such worldly goods or property wherewith I have pleased God in his providence to bless me I give and dispose of the same in the following manner - Improving well and bequeath require that my last debts & general charges be fully paid & satisfied out of my personal estate as soon as possible after my decease then I give & bequeath unto my eldest son John McAdams the plantation wherein I now live containing one hundred and twenty acres of land situated on both sides of the river in the State of Tennessee