

John Ferguson Will

for ever and an equal part of the orchard and the benefit of the upper Meadow for ten years of five years and likewise all my wearey clothes that I shall leave not otherwise my ashpots of — Fourthly I leave and bequeath to my son John Ferguson that part of the estate that he now lives upon provided he shall find his brother in all the above Neysparing manner And fiftithly I will and allow that out of the remanency part of my personal estate and the hundreth ashpots of that my daughter Betty Hodge be allowed to the amount of forty pounds and likewise one of the same to my daughter Eliza Lee also forty dollars and the rest which remains of the personal estate to equally divide among the whole of my daughters — And sixtith and lastly I do hereby appoint Bidewell & Anthony & My huswife Sam Ferguson and my son Samuel Ferguson to be my sole and only executors of to this my last will and testaments and as above I do hereby make & declare all former wills testaments and bequeathings whatsoever — And in testimony whereof I have hereunto set to my hand and affixed my seal this twenty ninth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six be in the presence of us
John Ferguson Sealed

John Ferguson Seale

~~abolish~~ James Kennedy

Joseph Duncan & George Bell two of the subscribers thereto at May Lyons 1807 & Adams to the record. Samuel Ferguson gentlly a collector to the foregoing will

John English Son. Will

Crown the Name of God Amrik

John English of the State of Virginia & County of Maryland being so weak in body but sound in mind may thank to God for the same and calling to mind the Mortality of my body and that it is appointed for all men to die I do make & ordain this my last will and testament revoking & overlooking all former & acknowledging only this last first I give and bequeath my soul to god that gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my executors by the power of god that I shall possess the same at the resurrection of the just — and as touching such worldly goods as it hath pleased god to bestow on me I give and bequeath in the following manner in witness all just debts to be paid out of my estate and all dues to be settled by my executors I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Anna English one third part of all my movable property to be enjoyed by her also her maintenance from the house & the profits of the land I now live on during her natural life or widowhood — Item I give & bequeath to my son Thomas English the half of the plantation I now live on & that part he now lives on to him & his heirs for ever to the several the long way of the survey as nearly equal as can be attained to — Item I give & bequeath to my son John English the other half of the land I now live on with the improvement belonging to the same to him & his heirs for ever also two surveys at the head of the branch containing one hundred acres and be it to my two grandsons John and Thomas English children to my son Andrew the first hundred to each of them when they come of age from their several surveys

John English Will

Mr. Congress Will

I give & bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth English one score house & of the same her brother John is to take the house and pay her fifteen pounds in other trade in I give & bequeath to my daughter Sarah Dodridge to Shillings.
I give & bequeath to my daughter Amy English an black men of four years old and lastly I appoint my two Sons Thomas & John English executors of this my last will & testament, signed sealed & confirmed this twentieth day of December 1798 in presence of us.

John English Seal

James White
Thomas Robson The foregoing will was proven in court by the Cather of Isaac White - John English Thomas Robson & John English the subscribers witnesseth thereto at August 29th 1807 & doth solemnly declare Thomas English & John English jointly and severally to the foregoing will

John McElroy Will

The name of God Amen

I John McClure being weak in body but in perfect mind & memory (God be glorified) do make & publish this my last will & testament in manner following that is to say My here to be equally divided between my sons Robert and Edward that Robert may have one half and Edward the other by a line run from the west through the tract and if they cannot agree about a choice of sides they are to let in presence of my executors said Robert & Edward my sons are to have said land and all actions they have to my legacies the sum heretofore named and my wife Rebecca McClure have and enjoy the rents & profits of said lands for life time and she is also to have the use benefit of my moveable effects except such things as may be considered burdensome by my widow and said property or personal estate or the amount thereof is to be equally divided among my children after the death of my wife - Robert & Edward are to pay the sum twofold and in hours or other property if it lasts the parties as well the first payment to be paid by executors at which time said Robert & Edward are to pay one hundred dollars each and so on to one hundred annually until all the sums heretofore directed are paid and applied by executors to the use of my legatees as hereafter directed - I give to my son James in addition the products of my here as heretofore directed - and his son John Twenty dollars but if son John doth not arrive at the age of twenty one years let a sum to be equally divided amongst my legatees after my James receives the same heretofore directed and intended to be no more of my estate - Also give to my son William McClure two hundred & four dollars together with what is heretofore intended to be paid as heretofore directed by said Robert & Edward my sons said Robert & Edward are further directed to pay my daughter Mary One hundred dollars in money aforesaid - said Robert & Edward also to pay my daughter Nancy One hundred dollars in money aforesaid - I hereby constitute and ordain William Boyle William McClure and John McElroy my sole executors - And I hereby command all persons who

John McElroy's Will

To be my last will & testament I witness whereof 5th day John McElroy have to this my last will and testaments set my hand and seal this ninth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight —

John McElroy Sealed

In witness of

William Bratton The foregoing will was proven in Court by the oaths of Thomas Thomas May, Mary & Samuel Boyles two of the subscribers witnesses thereto at February 2^d 1808 and caused to be recorded — William McElroy & John McElroy in due name, qualified as executors to the foregoing will —

Robert Mitchell's Will

In the Name of God Amen.

I know all y' whome it may concurse that I Robert Mitchell of the County of Washington & State of Tennessee being low in health but of sound and perfect memory and considering the uncertainty of this life and various other good causes at the instant now do constitute this my last will and testaments and request that it may be so taken by all in the manner and form following first I faithfully will that as all my just debt be paid Secondly I will make my dear wife for her support and the support of our children and the养育 her to these and support them all my household furniture and cattle hogs and all and every part of the stock together with what horses the executors hereafter mentioned will furnish. May shee Marry for her support and convenience and for the settling to support and raise the children aforementioned during their minority — Thirdly that the plantation on which I now live & the plantation that I have buying Adam Reid on the waters of Knob Creek be rented out by the executors of this my last will & testaments and the income to be applied to the support and education of my children and likewise to the support of my dear wife & Fourthly that the plantation I have buying Christopher Taylor and Samuel Boyles shall be in possession of my wife during the time that my children shall abide together with her or if they abide not together with her until the youngest of my children come to full age And that on it there shall be comfortable house built for her and my children excepting a piece or parcel of land least or part of that plantation on which Steven Brown has a claim for clearing provided he build a cabin and lets no man to contract him & after his term of time he entiteth said tract of plantation to fall into the possession of my wife as above mentioned — Fifthly that the horses that may not be required for the benefit or use of myself and children together with the back lots I have in the town of Louisville be applied as far as the executors hereafter mentioned may be necessary to the furnishing of the house that I have begun on a lot in said town except a lot number twenty four which of the heirs of William Ferguson shall pay the purchase and ten mony then and afterwards the claim of my heirs shall be extinguished and the lot be theirs and further in the same manner and form known by McElroy unto Anthony Sharp — Sixthly that the slaves that Sharp shall be managed by the judgment and discretion of my wife & executors until the children come to full age afterwards on that my wife shall have the sole right to sell or otherwise

Robert Mitchell's Will

Seventhly that a certain tract or parcel of land owned by my grand mother to me shall remain my father disposed of it and I hereby extingushe my claim to said land — first I will bequeath unto my dear wife Elizabeth that Negroe or Slave Martina in artile stock that may chance from among the slaves that shall be in their possession at the time mentioned in said article and that notwithstanding what shall be said hereafter concerning the plantation where I now live the my wife Elizabeth shall have a decent support from said plantation from the time that my children shall come to lawfull age during her natural life — Then to my son James a tract of land and plantation wher on I now live to be his from and after the time first mentioned — Then to my daughter Lucy the tract of land and plantation known by the name of Samuel Boyles before to be hers at the time before mentioned — To my daughter Eliza all that land and plantation mentioned in this clause joining same River at the time as before mentioned — And further I will and desire that the same lot on which the building is begun to be equally among my three children a brother and sister who shall and now make a farm there there may be in proportion when the children come to testifie age shall be equally divided among them further with what slaves shall be in their possession divided equally among them as may judge proper after my wife Elizabeth shall make her choice as above done — And I do hereby constitute Robert Allison Jr & William Fair executors and my wife Elizabeth executrix of this my last will and testaments abiding my head and seal this seventh day of November in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eight —

and sealed and acknowledged

In witness of

John C. Harris,

Sarah Fair The foregoing will was proven in Court by the oaths of Mr. Roberson John C. Harris and Sarah Fair two of the subscribers witnesses thereto at February second 1809 & caused to be recorded — Robert Allison William Fair and Elizabeth Mitchell qualified as executors & executrix of the foregoing will —

Michael Ingles' Will

In the Name of God Amen.

I Michael Ingles of Washington County State of Kentucky being sick and weak of body but of perfect mind & memory and knowing that it is proper for a man to do make & ordain this my last will & testament and as touching that bodily estate it hath pleased God to try me with I give begin with & dispose of in this manner & form to wch. First of all I give & bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Ingles & her children my real estate together with its appurtenances for & during her natural life to be disposed of provided she continues in wedlock I also give to her two negroes two horse creature (horses) one black. Mere & one black mare all the farming utensils & plow all the household furniture all the sheep belonging to the place except one also a hog on the place belonging to me together with all the wheat & corn now on hand & to be sown to the time of her death and to my executors to be sold for the payment of my debts & expenses