James Hall's Will

I, James Hall of the State of Pennsylvania Washington County being now in health but yet of perfect sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do hereby make this instrument of writing my last Will and Testament in the following manner. First I leave my legatees to my wife Elizabeth, the Plantation wherein I now live, together with all the improvements thereon appertaining together with all my negroes and stock of every kind not taught to name in this will, with all my farmey utensils and household furniture for her to keep together with help of my Executors, except such part as they may want to use ~~in paying~~ my children the portion coming to them hereafter named in this will, until my son James Hall shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, then he is to have possession of the said Plantation with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and is also to have an equal portion of other property such as my other sons have here. I have received of me, but is bound by my Executors to take good care and provide for his mother at which time she is to have choice of two of the negroes, a horse saddle and bridle if she chooses to take them, and such household furniture as my daughter has had, or shall receive, and choice of a room to live in, which household furniture she is to dispose of as she shall choose the negroes and other property to belong to my son James at her death. Secondly. I have and bequeath to my four daughters, by Nancy, Polly, Peggy, Luenday and Eliza the sum of six hundred dollars, each one, together with a good horse saddle and bridle and bridles, with an equal portion of other things such as my other girls that is married has received of me at the time of their marriage, or when they shall arrive to the age of twenty one years, by my wife & Executors, if not paid them to bear interest until paid by them. My will also is, that my daughter Nancy have the Quarter section of land that I own in the Highspury Purchase, if she shall choose to take it at five hundred dollars out of her share, if she refuses, for either of my other daughters to take it at the same price. Thirdly. My other lands and plantations, one where Benjamin Shely lies, one other near Jonesborough where John Herk lies, and one half of the tract at the old town where Thomas Baird lies, if given at least no the Quarter section in the Highspury Purchase if none of my daughters take it, and if my wife and Executors can pay my daughters with not selling any of said lands, for it to be divided among my youngest children living of age, also that my said Wives and his woman named Polly and her children
