Christian Getty Will

I Christian Getty of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee do make and ordain this as my last will and testament, believing it a duty to dispose of my property with which Providence has blessed me. I make, ordain, appoint the executor of my estate in the following manner.

First, That my deceased body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, and that the expenses thereof with all my just debts be first paid out of my estate.

And That the residue of my estate both real and personal shall under the direction of my executor be and remain for the use of my deceased wife during her natural life, with the exception of the her and saving on hand, and that she may freely collect out of the money as soon as it can be collected.

And That after the death of my Eldest wife my executor is to sell the residue of my estate both real and personal at either private or public sale as he may think best and make title to the same and make the proceeds as herein after directed.

4. To my daughters Mary Henry, Catharine, Sarah, Hannah, Hottenburger and Elizabeth Keckle, share and share alike with the following exceptions, namely that Catharine Beyer shall have forty two dollars less than my other before mentioned daughters, she having herebefore got of me that sum, and to Elizabeth Keckle one hundred dollars and more above my other daughters for services rendered that I have not herebefore paid her for.

5. That my executor collect the notes that I have as soon as convenient and distribute the same share and share alike between my before named daughters Mary, Catharine, Hannah and Elizabeth. I also consider that I have given to my son Christian Getty his share of my estate.

6th and last. I have nominated and appointed my son in law George Keckle executor of this my last will and testament, in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 10th day of February 1858.
