In the name of God amen

I Elizabeth Webb of the County of Washington & State of Virginia being in perfect mind & memory thank be to god, desiring to make this testimony of my body & knowing that it is apter for all men here to do to make this my last will & testament. First of all I give & command my soul unto god and my body unto the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial. And touching my worldly estate that god has been pleased to bless me with in this life I give & devise in the following Manner. First of all my black women named Hannah. It becomes my wish and will when it is the will of god to take me out of this world that she the said Hannah shall be & remain free from the power of any other person. That she be her own Guardian to act and to transact business for herself and for interest independent of the act & intent of any other person to come in & to go back when & where she may think proper so long as she may live. And as to the balance of my estate if any there be after paying my funeral charges I wish to be equally divided among my children without any distinction as to determine any of my three heirs of their just & equal share of the remainder interest to say either. This having attested & done any other will or testament to the best of my last will & testament. In testimony whereof these presents signed my name as to my hand & seal this 23rd day of December in the year of our Lord 1827. Elizabeth Webb
