

Sarah Glapcocks Will

be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my executors. Secondly- I give and bequeath to my sister Anne Hoag my negro girl Lame for the space of said Ann's lifetime and then I give and bequeath said negro girl to Sarah Baster her lifetime, and then to have her freedom. Thirdly- I give and bequeath to Sarah Baster my saddle and pelisse and over and above her part of my estate. Fourthly- I give and bequeath to Sarah Bogan the whole amount of her mother's part of my estate. Fifthly- I give and bequeath to Thomas Leckwill my Bove leave and large family Bible over and above his part of my estate. Sixthly- I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Miller my white Bra under the window with shut and on flasket and heater and one calico quilt that is not quilted, and the balance of my personal property to be sold and divided with my heirs. Lastly- I do hereby nominate and appoint Jerry White and Valentine Brown my executors. In witness whereof I do, this my last will set my hand and seal this 28th day of May 1840.

Sarah Glapcock (Real)
witness

signed sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names here to in the presence of the Testator this the 28th day of May 1840

James W. Mitchell
witness
Smith Brown

The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of James Mitchell and Smith Brown the subscribing witnesses at July Term 1840 and recorded.

William Smiths Will

In the name of God Amen I William Smith now resident of Washington County East Tennessee being weak in body but of strong mind and recollection with the usual infirmities of memory according to my age and ability of mind that it is appointed for all men once to die, I hereby make and constitute this my last will and testament. I resign my body to the tomb and my spirit or soul to them that created it in hope that at the day of the resurrection the Lord will bring me to him the Lord with Jesus and

William Smiths Will

him and- As it respects my personal estate that God has blessed me, with I will and dispose of them in the following manner. I will that one hundred and two acres of land that I own on the top of a creek in Washington County on the South side of the Clinch river joining Coopers Creek and the Big Run shall be and is hereby left to my two sons William and his brother David Smith to have the full benefit of said land equally. Also all the balance of my property after my debts are paid and I have a decent burial shall be equally divided between my two sons. The proportion of one still and tub and all the clothing, bedding &c that is left in my house when I die. Also my mare saddle and bridle I leave to them to be equal as the land or the other property also my two guns I will that they have after my death. And more in full reason of mind and memory, I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this twentieth day of July 1834, and also appoint Michael my executor

William Smith (Real)
witness

Wm Nelson (Real)

Benjamin Cook (Real) The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of Wm Nelson and Benjamin Cook subscribing witnesses at July Term 1834 and recorded

Jacob Robinsons Will

In the name of God Amen

I Jacob Robinson Jr being weak in body but of sound mind do make this my last will and Testament. First- I commit my soul to God that gave it and my body to be buried in a christian manner, and as to my property I wish it disposed of as follows: First all my just debts paid, then what may remain I wish my brother Felix to have nine dollars that is in his hands and my sister Leatharine Plott to have nine dollars, the balance to be divided between my three sisters Mary, Sarah and Elizabeth, excepting my clothes, them to be divided with my brothers as they may think best. I also appoint William, my brother to execute this my last will. In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 11th day of July 1835

Wm Nelson (Real)

Jacob Robinsons Will.

Wit Chas Hutton The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of John P. Houlce Chas Hutton and John P. Houlce Subscribing witnesses thereto at In m 18 1838
 recorded (83 words)

Henry Hartman's Will

State of Tennessee March 23 1838
 Washington County The last Will and Testament of Henry Hartman being in my right mind and perfect in my senses I do will and bequeath to my wife Polly Hartman one mole of land on John Blair for forty dollars, to have and use as she please and also, I do will and bequeath my wife Polly Hartman, the young boy mare to have and to hold and as or she please, also one good Bess and blothy, also the cupboards and ware, what would be necessary for her and one down, and one Table, and her own saddle all the above articles, I do will and bequeath to my wife Polly Hartman to have and to hold forever, and also to have her maintenance off of the plantation where we now live on. I will and bequeath to Smatham and Henry Nelson Hartman, my two eldest sons the plantation adjoining that of John Hartman and George Hales to be divided as equal as can be done, and then for my two sons Smatham to have choice and the benefit of his half from this time and the other half the rents or proceeds is to go to the use of raising the family till Henry A. Hartman arrives at the age of twenty one, then he is to have it, which tract of land is for the two to have and to hold forever. I also will to my son Smatham Hartman the young deer mare for his own. I do also will and bequeath to my two youngest sons, to wit Simeon Paine Hartman and John Blair Hartman the plantation where I now live to be equally divided between them at the time they may arrive at age of twenty one years old, but it is not to effect their mother's maintenance during her natural life. I do also will and bequeath to my six daughters, to have and to hold forever the plantation now considerably improved to Mrs. Kellow if said Kellow does not by first years agreeable to contract, then my six daughters is to have the same and divide the proceeds equal share and share alike with all the interest or proceeds from this time. It is to be remembered that the Kellow owns and all the Kellows' town is to remain in this place where we now live till the youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one years old, then to be sold and equally divided between all of my sons and daughters share and share alike. It is also to be remembered that my three youngest sons is to have a horse beast apiece and saddle against the arrival at the age of twenty one which is to be raised from the proceeds of this home place and the Henry A. Hartman descended land title he comes of the age of twenty one, then the balance to come off of the home place. Also Beathel is to have four head of sheep and one cow and calf and ten dollars in money. I also will to my daughter Smith as good a bed and clothes the other girls has got, and one bound calf, four head of sheep and one spinning wheel. Also all the stock to remain on the place for the benefit of raising and schooling the family. I want the three youngest sons to learn to read, write and cypher. It is to be remembered that after the Doctor is paid and my funeral expenses is all paid, the balance of my cash left is all to be left on interest till the youngest child comes of the age of twenty one then to be divided between the sons and daughters share and share alike. I also leave my household furniture to remain as it now is till the youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one then to be sold and divided share and share alike. Given under my hand and seal this 24th of March 1838. I also wish my son Smatham Hartman and John Hartman to execute this Will, this 24 March 1838.

Henry Hartman's Will

Attest in the presence of us

Smatham Hartman
 Simeon Paine Hartman

at April In m 1838, and recorded

Henry Hartman Seal

The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of Smith Hartman and Simeon Hartman the subscribing witnesses thereto

Jane Allison's Will

I Jane Allison of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. Bearing in duty to dispose of the property with which Providence has blessed me, I make ordain and appoint as follows