Abraham Snapp's Will.

In the name of God Amen.

I Abraham Snapp Senr of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being of advanced age but of sound mind and memory, for which I thank God, and being desirous of disposing of my worldly property that I have been lifted with in manner and form following— 1st Item. I bequeath to my son Laurence Snapp one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death, as I have given him his portion in property in my life time— 2nd Item. I bequeath to my daughter Sarah McGhee one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death, as I have given her portion in property in my life time— 3rd Item— I bequeath to my son Peter Snapp one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given his portion in property in my life time— 4th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Christena Shrale one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given her portion in property in my life time— 5th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Catharine Bray one dollar, to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given her portion in property in my life time— 6th Item— I bequeath to my son George Snapp one dollar to be paid to by my executor one year after my death as I have given his portion in my life time— 7th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth McCune who went to Louisiana State and married fifty dollars to be paid one year after my death by my executor— 8th Item— I bequeath to my son Joseph Snapp one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given his portion in my life time— 9th Item— I bequeath to my son Abraham Snapp the tract of land whereon I now live which I deeded to my son Jacob from him to my son Abraham with all its appurtenances to him and his heirs forever I also bequeath to my son Abraham all my farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture of every description, and one cow & calf as it is all the stock that I own at this time, as my son Abraham has paid upwards of three hundred dollars for me of debts, and as he has given his obligation to me for my maintainance during my natural life which obligation is dated sixth of September 1831— 10th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Margaret Richards one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given her portion in my life time— 11th Item— I bequeath to my son Jacob Snapp one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death, as I have given him his portion in my life time— 12th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Mary Ann Prather one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death, as I have given her portion in my life time— 13th Item— I bequeath to my daughter Hosiann Henley one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I have given her portion in my life time— 14th Item— I bequeath to my grand daughter Mary Ann Cook one dollar to be paid by my executor one year after my death as I give to my daughter Betsy Cox her portion in my life time and she is now dead— And lastly— I appoint and ordain my son Abraham Snapp my executor of this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills and testaments by me executed. In witness I have hereunto set my hand & seal this eighth of July eighteen hundred & thirty three.

Abraham Snapp [Seal]

Wm. Patton
Jno Lewis
E. L. Mathes

The foregoing will was proven in open court by the oaths of Wm. Patton & E. L. Mathes two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered

Andrew Buchanan's Will.

I Andrew Buchanan of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee do make and ordain this my last will and testament, in manner and form following (to wit) I give unto my wife Margaret Buchanan my bay horse with her saddle and bridle, with the use of the house and kitchen, with the household and kitchen furniture during her natural life, excepting such parts as I may hereafter dispose of for the benefit of my children— also one third part of my cattle, hogs and sheep one third part of the products of the farm for her support on the place, and the support of my daughters, while they remain single; also two hundred dollars which I have at interest— I give unto my son Hervey Buchanan the plantation I now live on, including one entry adjoining (only he is not to have the use of the house during the life of his mother)— also the farming utensils one horse saddle and bridle, the ballance of my cattle, hogs and sheep, and the residue of my money— I give unto my three daughters, Sarah Jane, Matilda and Lucinda, each one horse saddle and bridle, to be worth one hundred dollars in trade— Also to each of my daughters one hundred dollars in such trade as they may need at fair trade rates, and at the times hereafter specified— (to wit) Sarah Jane is to receive hers in two years, Matilda is to receive hers in three years, and Lucinda to receive her hundred dollars in four years— and should either or all of my daughters marry or leave the place before the death of their mother, they are to have a bed and furniture and such other property as they may need and is to spare from the house— also I give unto each of my daughters one hundred and fifty dollars more in good trade at fair trade rates, to be paid as soon as Hervey Buchanan can sell the land he has in Kentucky— But if that land should not be sold in the year eighteen hundred and forty three Hervey is to pay my daughters their legacies, but may if he chooses convey the land to them, which they are to receive at four hundred dollars in part of their legacies, each one having an equal part, unless they should otherwise agree among themselves; but should it so turn out that the Kentucky land should be lost by a later title or otherwise, in that event my four children are each to lose one hundred dollars of it— say one hundred dollars to each of my daughters— It is my will that the money left to my wife remain at interest until it may be needed, but when she may need it, she may call in the interest or such other part of it as may be necessary for— and if she should not use that money during her natural life, it is my will that it be divided among my daughters. It is also my will that there be no sale or appraisement of my property, but that it remain on the place for the benefit of my family, and for their use and improvement, and that any surplus property, and that which may accumulate be disposed of for the payment of the legacies before mentioned to my daughters— Lastly— I do constitute and appoint my friend John Stephenson and my son Hervey Buchanan executors of this my last will and testament, and do hereby vest them with power and authority for the same, and it is my will that they be not called upon the court for security— I do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all