Will of Edith Beard

In the name of God Amen. I Edith Beard of the County of Washington and State of Georgia, being of sane mind, but advanced in life, do make and ordain this my last will and testament to wit.

First. I give and bequeath to my son David my brass handled Bureau and the Notes of hand (some 2 or 3) or obligations I hold on him, which are to be delivered up to him at my death, Second. I bequeath and give to my son Samuel, my Bureau known as the "Safety" Bureau, and the two or three Notes I hold on him except the half of one or two of said Notes which belongs to my daughter Matilda Gray. These Notes not now at hand are understood to be drawn payable to me, but the said one half due to my daughter Matilda I leave her to settle with my son Samuel.

Third. I give and bequeath to my daughter Matilda Gray the three Cots of mine, three milk Cows, three yearlings and three calves now on the farm where I live, also the old Wagon Plough windmill, gearing and farming utensils of mine on the farm.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to my only surviving daughters Matilda and Emilie all my wearing apparel and clothing and the articles used by me about my person.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to my two daughters Matilda and Emilie all the rest of my personal property consisting of Beds and bedding, Tables, Bureau Clock, Cook Stove, Press Chairs and all the other household furniture and personal property left at my death, to be by them divided between themselves the said Matilda and Emilie, and my sons David and Samuel according to their knowledge of my wishes in regard to the division of said property. My said daughters are well acquainted with my will and wishes in regard to said property; and having full confidence in their discretion and disposition to carry out my wishes in the disposition of said property, I give them this direction in the disposition and distribution of the same.

Sixth. I hereby give and bequeath to the heirs of Mr. Myron Humphreys my deceased daughter's husband, One Dollar as their full share of my estate.

seventh. I give and bequeath to the heirs at law of my son William One Dollar as theirfull share of my estate.

Eighth. In case of the death of my daughter or either of them before my death it is my will that the surviving daughter make the division and in case that neither survive that my executors divide it equally between my son David and Samuel and the heirs at law of my said daughter Matilda Emilie.

Ninth. I hereby appoint my sons David and Samuel Beard my executors to execute this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 11th day of July 1865

Edith X Beard (seal)
