

Robert A. Thompson's Will continued

may retain it as her home or sell or dispose of the property as she may see fit. I will that my son Desiac C. Thompson shall have the other end, or portion of land on which is a mill seat, and the dwelling and other improvements where he formerly lived, to have and to hold, or dispose off as he may see fit.

After all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Louisa C. Thompson all my personal property (Except such as may be herein after specified) consisting in grain live stock, House hold & Kitchen furniture, Money on hand, stocks, and bonds & Claims, beds & bedding, in short every thing that is considered personal property to have and to hold, or dispose of as she may see fit.

I will and bequeath to my son Desiac C. Thompson my Silver Watch and one Case of Drawers known as the Button Bureau, also my rifle gun, and all my wearing apparel, also one note or obligation I hold on Saml P. M. Adams calling for five hundred & twenty five dollars & Eighty three cents in United States gold, dated October 27th 1860. Also one note on Joseph Duncan Jr calling for six hundred and fifty two dollars & fifty cents in U.S. Gold dated May 26th 1861.

I will & bequeath to my sister Mary Jane Grindell two feather beds & bedding.

I appoint Saml B. Ellis and Wm J. Range my Executors and request them to settle up my estate in accordance to this my will. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 39th day of July 1867.

In presence of these witnesses

J. E. Lyon
David Stuart

R. A. Thompson Seal

The foregoing will was duly proven in open Court at the October term 1867. by the oaths of J. E. Lyon & David Stuart the two subscribing witnesses thereto are ordered to be recorded, and Saml B. Ellis one of the Executors named in said will appeared in open Court gave bond with sufficient security and was duly qualified as such Executor, Wm J. Range refusing to act.

I J. Gresham Clark
For agreement in regard to this will
See page 164

Samuel G. Bayless Will

I Sam'l G. Bayless make this my will After my funeral expences is paid, our Dioram is to live in the house and have all he makes on the field and old meadow towards Barton Bayless the orchards and half the upper bottom meadows, garden and back pastur for which he is to take care of his mother and furnish her every thing she needs during her natural life or widowhood, my wife is to have all the household and kitchen furniture during her life or widowhood, The rest of my Personal property to be sold by my Executors and the proceeds with the money due me to be equally divided among my children & their issue. The executors to have the right to bid and buy at the sale, S. J. Slyker and Thomas Bailes is to tend the fields they shall bear tending and pay the taxes of the grain except the lower bottom which will pay for itself the corn, they are to keep the houses up and pay themselves out of the rent. The rent to be sold every year by the Executors at public or private sale and the tax for the land paid out of the proceeds, and the balance to be kept at interest until the property left my wife comes into their hands, then all the personal property to be sold and the proceeds of the property and rent to be divided amongst my children as the executors see fit or among my wife & myself so my land to be divided equal amongst my children Thomas shall be lawfull adjoining him and William to be lawfull who ever she lives. I do name my sons Thomas Bayless and Isaac Bayless my Executors. I signe and seal this 25th February 1867.

Sam'l G. Bayless

Attest
S. G. Bayless
Cassander C. May
George W. May

The foregoing will was duly proven in open Court at the November term first 1867 by the oaths of C. E. May & George W. May the two Subscribing witnesses thereto ordered to be recorded. And the Executors therein named appearing in open Court gave bond to qualify as the law directs.

J. Gresham Clark