

Greenbury Boring's Will

In the name of God Amen
I Greenbury Boring being of sound mind and disposing memory after commending my soul to God who have it dispose of my worldly effects in the following manner (to wit) I bequeath to my son Isaac Boring that part of my plantation where he now lives up to the division line made between him and David Dyer provided he pay to his brother Madeline Boring thirty six Dollars with Interest from the date thereof and the other half of my plantation I bequeath to my son John Boring at my decease and my wife Mary Boring by him paying to his above named Brother James Madison Boring thirty six Dollars with interest from this date my two sons Isaac & John having paid to the balance of my heirs the sum of sixty Dollars each for which they are to have the land as above specified in testimony hereunto ^{my} set hand and affixed my seal this 31st day of March 1858

Abraham Gregg

James Hodge

Greenbury Boring Test

(On the back of the will is written the following)

Isaac Boring agrees to pay the thirty six dollars that John Boring was to pay James M.
Boring by the conditions of the within will

The foregoing will was proven in open court by Abraham Gregg one of the subscribing witnesses at the July Term 1874 and James Hodge the other subscribing witness, at the March Term 1874 and ordered to be recorded

A. D. Wislami

Clerk

Rev James Miller's Will

In the name of God Amen.

I James Miller of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and of disposing memory, and fully appreciating the obligations of life and, and the solemnities of a future existence, do make and publish this my last will and Testament.

First. It is my mind and so declare and provide that after the payment of my funeral expenses, and any legal debts that may exist against me, that all my estate, real, personal, and mixed, of all and every kind, shall devolve absolutely and without condition to my beloved wife Elizabeth B.
Miller to be used, in whole, and disposed of, as she may see proper, with the following exceptions and specifications only, to wit:

First. It is my desire and will that the dwelling house and lot with its appurtenances situate in Johnson City Washington County Tennessee, in and on which I now reside, shall be occupied, used, and enjoyed by my said wife, during her natural life, and at her death to descend to the "Christian Church" of which I am a Minister and member, to be used forever by said Church as a "Society or Ministerial Home" for said Denomination of Christians.

Second. It is my will and so provide that from one of my lots South east of Main Street in Johnson City aforesaid a plot of ground with a front of fifty feet and a depth of twenty feet be set apart as a site for a "Christian Church" provided said Church shall within six years from the date this my last will and Testament takes effect, erect a good and comfortable Church building thereon; but should said Church fail so to do, then said lot, or part thereof to be designated shall revert absolutely to me and wife.

Third. It is my will that my interest in N. A. Patterson's Improved "Eagle Wing" Sawn Propeller under Letters Patent of the Government of Great Britain, the Dominion of Canada, France and Belgium shall be held by my said wife, as agent for the Christian Church of the United States of America, and that as such Agent she control fully the same and after the payment of incidental necessary expenses connected with the management or sale of said interest, that the net proceeds arising from the sale, or growing out of said interest, be paid by her to an authorized trustee to be appointed by said Church, and my direction and request to said trustee and Church as aforesaid, is that such funds be used in a manner best to promote the general interests of said Church and the Cause of God.

Fourth. It is my will that William Miller - a Colored man, and former servant - shall have absolutely the ten acres of ground