

Thomas Kings will continued and Landon, I give and bequeath to my son Jackson the fifty acres of land which I bought of Danny Malone & George W. Malone; & desk & one trunk, I give and bequeath to my son Landon, all the land on the East Side of main road & the hair trunk & family Bible. If either of these three should die without lawful heirs of their body, their estate shall fall to the other two, if two should die their estates shall fall to the one, if the one should die without heirs the estate shall be divided equal between Caroline and James, heirs.

I want one main one cow, one woodwork of a wagon one wagon running geese ironed & the be not finished, other things to tidious to mention, to be sold and to be put to the use of paying my just Debts, and if this does not pay them all. I want that farm over ponder to be rented out till they are all paid up. Lastly, I ordain my son Jackson King and C. W. King to be my sole executors of this my last Will and Testament, and do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, Wills, legacies, bequests, and executors by me in any wise before named, Ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 18th day of December 1855.

Thomas X. King Seal

Sealed and delivered in the presence of

Hugh P. Young
Richard Northington

The foregoing will was proven in open Court at the August term 1867 by the oath of Hugh C. Young and Richard Northampton the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded
J. J. Lusham Clerk

George W Brooks will

Emancipating will of George H Brooks

This last will and Testament of George Brooks was made one week before the death of the Testator.

First The said George H Brooks gave unto his brother William C. Brooks his discharge and other papers and all the rights and involvements growing out of the same. This is all the personal ^{thing} property which said George H Brooks had to dispose of.

In Testimony that this is the last will of and Testament of the said George H. Brooks who was then of sound and disposing mind, and who called upon us to bear witness thereto about one week before his death, We have hereunto set our names as witnesses, and certify this to be true this the 23rd day of January 1866.

George Hale
Samuel Y Rogers

The foregoing will was presented to the Court at September term 1867 and proven by the oath of George Leale & Samuel S. Rodgers and ordered to be recorded.

William R. Seehorn's Will

In the name of God Amen. I William R. Seckorn of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee being weak in body, but sound in mind, do make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills

It is my will that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid,

1. 2nd It is my will and desire that my son William A. Seehorn shall have the two horses now on the plantation, and at the death of my dearly beloved wife Anna Seehorn he is to furnish my youngest daughter Susannah A. Seehorn a good horse, ^{brilliant & bold} ~~Paddle and bridle~~, but in the event she marries before the death of my wife he is to furnish them at the time of her marriage.

3rd It is my will that my beloved wife Anna Seehorn have all the Cattle & Hogs on the plantation and all the bedding & household & Kitchen furniture during her natural lifetime, and at her death my youngest daughter Susannah Shabli have said property.

4th Whereas I have sold my farm in Greene County to Harvey & William Allen for Forty five hundred and