Sarah A. Broyles Will

In the name of God amen!

I, Sarah A. Broyles being of sound mind, memory and understanding do make ordain and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following-

I give to my son Augustus my parlor furniture consisting of two small sofas, two large arm chairs, center table, twelve mahogany chairs, my parlor lamp, two large silver candelsticks, my Brussels Carpet, also my rocking chair, silver cream pitcher, and wash stand set which he gave me. I also give him my parlor and rows, shawl and bonnet, one bureau, one moss feather bed and mattress, two pillows and bolsters in addition to those I have already given him. I give him also the eighth part of my silver, and my mahogany dining table.

To my son Edward I give my gold watch, the eighth part of my silver, one of my bureaus, and one of my nice table cloths.

To my son W^m Henry I give one feather bed, and pillows and bolsters, and my sitting room carpet, my two parlor vases, and the eighth part of my silver.

To my daughter Margaret I give my new Walnut Bedstead and my marble top washstand, the feather bed of mine now in her possession, the eighth part of my silver, one of my gold broaches, and one pair of linen sheets.

To my son Robert I give my large new bible, and mahogany writing desk, which he gave me. I give him also my telescope, one large nice table cloth and the eighth part of my silver.

To my daughter Sarah Ann I give all the pictures painted by her and their frames, one of my gold broaches, she and her sister to draw for choice, also one of my feather beds now in Tommies possession, also one eighth part of my silver, my gold chair, one pair of linen sheets, and large nice table cloth, and to her daughter Maggie my piano and stool.

I give to my son Thomas an eighth part

of my silver also my side board and bedstead, 2 feather beds and pillows now in his possession, also every article of mine now in his possession, except my wheat fan, which must belong equally to him and Robert for farming purposes.

To my son John I give my secretary, and book case, my work table, and twelve cane bottom chairs, one more feather bed, mattress, and two pillows, one eighth part of my silver, one large table cloth, my horse and buggy, and one of my bureaus, he, Augustus and Edward to draw for choice, also my large sofa, the hat rack, four quartets, two tall mahogany bedsteads, one or two common wash stands, ten or more split bottom chairs, one stair carpet and rods, two lace and two worsted window curtains, some books, one pair of handsome blue pitchers and some matting the following lot of cut glass. consisting of a nice casserole two trifle dishes, one pair of cellery stands one pair of decanters, one butter tub, and one large oval preserve dish, also the lot of goblets wine and jilly glasses, custard cups, four other preserve dishes, two small lamps, six tin dish covers, and a lot of gilt china. I desire shall be equally divided among my above mentioned children or disposed of in such manner as shall suit themselves.

All the common crockery and kitchen furniture are Augustus, also give him all my common bed clothes, sheets, comforts, blankets, pillow and bolster cases, also my table napkins, dailys and hand towels, and I desire that each of my children shall have one of my nice quilts, the work of my own hands. I direct that my plantation on Chucky River Washington County, East Tennessee known as the homestead shall be divided into three tracts containing an equal number of acres, by parrallel lines running from the river to the foot of the mountain, but as the mountain woodland lies in such shape that these lines can not he continued straight up the mountain side it must be divided separately and in three equal parts, so as to allot one to each of said three tracts, and to adjoin the same. The tract toward down the river & next to Mrs Baylis and Abb.

Thompson I give, devise and bequeath to my Executors herein after named In Trust never the-less for the sole use, benefit and behoof of my daughter Sarah A. Williams for and during the term of her natural life freed and discharged from the debts and control of her present and any future husband and freed and discharged from any debts of her own contracting previous to the date hereof, this gift to her being expressly upon that condition and upon her death In Trust for the use and benefit of her children to be equally divided among them - Provided nevertheless that if any executor whether or her self or husband shall attempt to enforce the collection of his demand against the life estate hereby given her then and in that event the rents, issues and profits of the said land hereby given her for life shall cease to be hers, and the gift hereof shall be utterly null and void, and in that event I give the same to her children for their maintenance education and support and I direct that the said Trustees shall from that time receive and so apply the same. The division of said lands among said children to be upon the death of their mother or when the youngest child becomes of age, according to the circumstances mentioned herein, provided that said Trustees may sell and convey said lands and reinvest the proceeds in other lands more desirable to be held by them subject to the same trusts.

The tracts highest up the river on which to brick dwelling house is situated, I give to my son Thomas the dwelling house and other improvements, I value at four hundred dollars - Then as I value all

that tract of land at twenty six dollars and fifty cents per acre as many acres must be cut off from the lower side of this tract by a parallel line from the river to the mountain as will equal in value the estimate I have set upon the improvements and the price so cut off must be added to the middle tract. These directions must be carried out unless I can make other satisfactory arrangements -

I give to my son John the middle tract of this land. I give devise and bequeth to my Executors herein after named the tract of land in Tennessee known as the Baylis Tract -

In Trust never the less for the sole use, benefit and behoof of my son Robert for and during the term of his natural life, and after his death In Trust for the sole use and benefit of his children to be equally divided among them, provided that the said Trustees may sell and convey said land and reinvest the proceeds in other lands more desirable, to be held by them subject to the same trusts -

As John's mind is not made up as to whether he will take the Tennessee place hereby given him, or the Lawrence place in S. C. he must decide the matter for himself - If he should elect to take the Lawrence place, then the Tennessee place I have given him must be sold to pay Augustus what is due him from his father's estate, together with any other debts that may be outstanding, and after said debts are paid, he must be paid from the balance of the proceeds as much as will make the Lawrence place equal in value to the price given to Sarah A. Williams and Thomas - The Lawrence place being valued to John at not less than fifteen hundred dollars - and if there should be still an overplus, I direct the same to be equally divided between my two daughters M. C. Van Wyck and Sarah A. Williams - If he should elect to take the Tennessee place given him, then the Lawrence place must be sold, and after payment of these debts out of the proceeds, the overplus must be divided between my said two daughters named. But in the event John takes the Lawrence place, and the overplus of the proceeds of sale of the Tennessee place after payment of the debts is not sufficient to equalize John as above directed, then the deficiency must be made up to him by an assessment on the lands given to Sarah A. Williams, to Thomas, and to Robert, their lands being valued to them respectively at twenty six dollars and fifty cents per acre; and this I direct because it is my purpose to do exact justice as nearly as I can to all my children -

Lastly - I do hereby revoke the will heretofore made by me and nominate and appoint my sons Thomas T. Broyles and C. T. Broyles executors of this my last will and testament.

Witness my hand & seal this the nineteenth day of June 1885.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Sarah A. Broyles as and for her last will and testament in her presence, who at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto -
