

Samuel Coruthers will

In the name of God amen.
 I Samuel Coruthers of the State of Tennessee County of Washington being of sound mind and memory moving the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make ordain and declare this to be my last will and Testament revoking all wills here before by me made -
 First After my death I wish to be buried in a christian like manner. Secondly my will and desire is that my just debts shall all be paid. Thirdly I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Catharine my entire estate both real and personal during her natural life or her widowhood after the death of my beloved wife Catharine. The personal property of my estate is to be sold to the highest bidder by my Executor here in after mentioned.
 My Executor pay to my daughter Liza McElroy one dollar in money which is to be her or her heirs entire part of my estate furthermore I have deeded unto my daughter Manerva and her husband Phellip Duncan the amount of land I intended them to have and that is their entire interest of my estate both real and personal. After the death of my beloved wife the remaining proceeds of the personal estate ^{and land} as to be equally divided between my two sons David Anderson Jackson and Jonathan Lafayette Winfield if either of my sons shall before such division have died leaving lawful issue such issue to receive the parents share but if there be no issue then such deceased share to fall into the general fund. To be divided among the survivors in the manner here to fore directed if in case both my sons should die leaving no heirs then in that case the heirs of the body of my daughter Liza McElroy ^{my estate} to be equally divided among them.
 But in no other case they to come in as heirs of my estate only as heirs above mentioned. But in no case is Manerva Duncan or her heirs to have any part of my estate. Lastly I make constitute and appoint John White my Executor of this my last will and Testament in witness whereoff I have here unto subscribed my name and affixed my seal.

wording, that is if Martin Moore will come forward and arrange or satisfy such a portion of the debt due from me to Mrs Boster ^{as may be just} then his wife Linnanda may come in as one of the heirs of my estate to fare in exact proportion with the other children.

It is also my will, and I wish it so construed that at the death of my wife that all my ^{unpaid} personal property be sold to be invested as herein before provided - Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of (as may be just) "before signing" witnesses.
