

Nancy M. Carnie's Will.

The foregoing will was presented to the Court for probate, at the August term 1876. And proven by the oaths of James Patton & James McBaileys in open Court and ordered to be recorded and J. A. Bradshaw qualified as Executor.

J. F. Gresham Clift

Rev. John Wright's Will + Margaret Wright

We John Wright and Margaret Wright of Johnson City, Washington County and State of Tennessee do by these presents make this our last will and testament, revoking all other wills that we might have made.

Firs. We direct that our burials shall be done in a plain Christian like manner without any funeral afterwards.

Secondly. That all necessary expenses, and just debts paid out of any property or debts that may be at command. Thirdly. We will and bequeath the acre lot where we now live in Johnson City bounded on the east by Dr. Minch on the south by a main street and on the west by J. D. Hails lot to our son George Washington Wright, including all the appurtenances thereto belonging or pertaining, with all the houses, and kitchen furniture in our possession, and debts due us, except one bed, with this incumbrance that our second son John James Wright being a cripple is to be supported and taken care of to the value of his part of the half acre lot where the house stands, as the deed will show.

Fourthly. We will and bequeath to our daughter Catharine Rags one bed including thestead straw and feather ticks with two sheets blanket, comfort and quilt. Fifthly. We pledge ourselves each to the other not to revoke or rescind this will, unless by consent of both. And lastly we make and appoint George Washington Wright the executor of this our last will and testament, releasing him from giving Bond and Security. Given under our hands & seals this 18th day of September 1874 in presence of

Mont Hop
Jacob McNece

John Wright Subd.
Margaret Wright Subd.

The foregoing will was proven in open Court at the Sept term 1876. by the oaths of Mont Hop & Jacob McNece the Subscribing witnesses to be recorded. And G.W. Wright was qualified as Executor.

William N. Cowan's Will

I. N. Cowan of the County of Washington & State of Tennessee, Knowing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, and concurring that every one has a right to dispose of his property in his own way while of sane mind and strong memory, do make this my last will and testament.

First. I direct my executors herein after mentioned, after my death to have my body buried in a decent manner, without show or ostentation by the side of my dear parents in Salem grave y'd.

Second. I wish them to pay all just debts out of my estate.

Thirdly. I give to my beloved wife M. A. Cowan all my real estate to have and to hold for her maintenance, and the education and maintenance of our dear children.

Fourth. After the death of my wife, I direct that the remaining executors of my estate to have all the property real or personal to be divided equally among our children, J. M. Cowan, Sallie A. C. M. J. C. J. S. C. L. H. C. W. P. E. M. C. if they have finished their education, if not to retain an amount sufficient to finish it.

Fifth. I appoint my beloved wife M. A. Cowan executors and my aff. son J. M. Cowan co-executor of my estate without requiring them to give bond and security.

Sixth. I give my executors right to sell any of the property belonging to my estate real or personal at any time that they may think proper.

I have but little property to divide among my dear children, but I would direct them to the Lord Jesus Christ who is able to give them an inheritance that is incorruptible and will never fade away. I hope after the toil and sorrows of this life to meet all my family in the mansions of the blest above.

May 9th 1875

W. H. Cowan

The foregoing will was presented for probate at the Sept term of the County Court for 1876. and the genuine hand writing of the will proven to be the writing of the said W. H. Cowan and was his signature thereto by the oaths of Col G. W. Selford and W. E. Madis in open Court, and there being no objections to said will the Court ordered the same to be recorded, and M. A. Cowan the Executrix & J. M. Cowan the Executor came into open Court and was duly sworn as the law directs, they being released from giving bond by the will.

J. F. Gresham Clift