Winnie Deakins Will

In view of the fact that according to the course of Nature, owing to my extreme age and infirmities condition of health, so by this instrument make and publish my last will and testament hereby giving all powers, wills or instruments that I may have heretofore made

First I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate by my Executor herein after named, out of the first moneys that may come into his hands.

Second, after all my debts and funeral expenses are paid as herein before provided, I will and bequeath unto Samuel Deakins a Colonel has regt being with me, all the remainder of my estate both real and personal of whatsoever kind to have and to hold the same unto him and to his heirs and assigns. But I do hereby expressly provide that said Samuel Deakins is to remain with me and to remain it during my natural life, and otherwise stand to my wants and necessities whenever required, and in case he should fail to do so, then the bequest herein made to him is to become void and the said remainder of my property as heretofore stated will be divided between all of my legal heirs as may be by law provided. But if the said Samuel Deakins shall comply with my requests and necessities during life the said bequest to him is to be and remain in full force.

It is further provided and directed that in the event it should be necessary after my decease to sell any property for the purpose of paying debts, then in that event he will dispose of whatsoever he may deem best and in the manner as also seem best to him.

I do hereby nominate and appoint R. N. May as Executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, after having the contents of this instrument fully made known to me. This 10th Dec 1886 signed & acknowledged in our presence, and we do hereby subscribe our names as witnesses at the instance and request of the testator.

Daniel Dewald Will

I, Daniel Dewald do make and publish this, as my last will and testament hereby making and making void, all other legacies at any time made.

First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid, as soon after my death as possible, out of my money that I may die free of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.

Second, I give and devise to my daughters Mary Ann Dewald, Elizabeth Dewald, and Margaret Thomas a series of land including all the ^{in the branch} improvements bounded as follows. Beginning in or near where the great road crosses said Branch, so as to run a straight line in or near the mouth of the farm from where in an Eastern corner, including three fourths of the lot north of the same and stable, to a point far enough, so that the third line run in a south East direction to the woodland, so as to include, three shares of timber land. Margaret Thomas, is to have the south side next to J. W. Casper twenty five acres out of the security acres, with the privilege to the Spring run. My desire is that Margaret Thomas and her son and daughter are to live in the house with her two sisters if the parent agree if they cannot Margaret Thomas may build on her lot.

Third, I give and devise to my two daughters and my two sons, to wit Catherine Walter, Julia Callaway, William V. Dewald, James M. Dewald the remainder of my real estate being eighty six acres more or less, to be equally divided between them, either by sale of the land, or by division of the land, equal number of acres to each one, and in case that Catherine Walter's grand children die without issue or children, that whatever share, of my estate, that she may have received shall revert back to her brothers and sisters or their heirs.

Daniel Dewald Will

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Julia Callaway twenty five dollars, and to my daughter Mary Ann Dewald twenty dollars, for a note that she holds against me.

Fifth, I give and bequeath all my last household and kitchen furniture to my two daughters, Mary Ann and Elizabeth Dewald, which they may divide among of it among their brothers and sisters if they see proper so to do.

Sixth, I do hereby nominate and appoint my son James M. Dewald my Executor. In witness I do to this my will set my hand, this fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty two.

Daniel Dewald
