Daniel Dewald Will

I, Daniel Dewald do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby making and making void, all other by me at any time made.

First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of my money that I may die at ease of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.

Second, I give and devise to my daughters namely Mary Ann Dewald, Elizabeth Dewald, and Margaret Thomas seventy acres of land including all the pine ^{in the branch} growing there, bounded as follows. Beginning in or near where the great road crosses said Branch so as to run a strait line in or near the mouth of the same from thence in an Eastern course including three fourths of the lot north of the barn and stables, to a point far enough so that the third line runs in a south East direction to the woodland, so as to include their shares of timber land. Margaret Thomas, so to have the south side next to J. W. Casper twenty five acres out of the seventy acres, with the privilege to the spring near by. my desire is that Margaret Thomas and her son and daughter are to live in the house with her two sisters if the farm at Aggie if they cannot at Margaret Thomas may build on her lot.

Third, I give and devise to my two daughters and my two sons, to wit Catherine Walter, Julia Callaway, William V. Dewald, James M. Dewald
