

Humphreys Glaze et al.
vs.
Wm B. Glaze et al.

Nuncupative Will,

In obedience to the order of the Supreme Court of Tennessee made at its September 1888 and the order of the Circuit Court for Washington County made at its December Term 1888 in the above styled cause, I, Lewis Cooper Clerk of the Circuit Court in and for said County of Washington and State of Tennessee do hereby certify the accompanying nuncupative will of David C. Moore Dec^d together with a certified copy of the issue made up in said cause the verdict and judgement of the said Circuit and Supreme Courts back to the County Court of Washington County Tennessee to the end that the same may be by said Court recorded and all such other and further proceedings had in the premises as the law requires.

Given under my hand and Official Seal at office in Jonesboro this the 30th day of January 1889.

Lewis Cooper
Clerk of the Circuit Court of Washington County Tennessee.

Nuncupative Will of David C. Moore.

On the 26th day of June A.D. 1887 between the hours of 8 and 9 A.M. David C. Moore deceased in his last sickness at Mark Seaton's own habitation in the first civil District of Washington County State of Tennessee where he David C. Moore had been previously residing over ten days and where he had been suddenly surprised by his last fatal sickness in the presence of the undersigned witnesses whom he especially requested to bear witness thereto that his will was &c as follows to wit we were called into the room where the deceased was lying by H. Glaze. Mark Seaton came in first and when H. Aston came in said then

Nuncupative Will of David C. Moore Continued

H. Glaze spoke to said David C. Moore as follows Dary I will state the matter over in the presents of these witnesses as you have just stated it to me and you can answer you say (addressing deceased) that if you dye you do not want that note to come against me and you want me to have one of your mules deceased David C. Moore replied yes if I die I dont want that note I holde against you to ever come against you and I want you to have one of my mules the said David C. Moore died on the 27th day of June 1887.

Written and signed by us
Jully the 5th 1887

M. L. Seaton
Henry Aston

Humphreys Glaze

vs.

Wm B. Glaze

Moses Glaze Lawrence Glaze
Caroline Morrison Wilson
Moore and Daniel Moore

In the Circuit Court of Washington County
Tennessee

The proponent Humphreys Glaze avers that David C. Moore who died in Washington County Tennessee on or about the 27th day of June 1887 made a nuncupative will, the same being his last will and Testament being made in his last fatal sickness and while he was in extremis and the same having been duly reduced to writing by the two witnesses as stated in said paper writing on the date therein stated and that all the legal requirements as to said nuncupative will complied with said Humphreys Glaze produces the writing which is herunto attached and to the Court shown and which is duly signed by M. L. Seaton and Henry Aston who are the witnesses to said nuncupation and the said Humphreys Glaze who is made the sole devisee of the property thereby devised hereby avers and