Henry Hall's Will

I Henry Hall of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee Considering the uncertainty of life and certainty of death, and being weak in body, but of sound mind and judgement, do hereby make this my last will and testament (viz) to wit, namely, After my just debts and funeral expenses are paid, and I desire that they be paid as hereinafter directed I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane Hall her dower as the law would give it to her had I made her will to have and hold the same during her natural life. I will and bequeath to my son Thomas S. Hall a tract or parcel of land known as the Isaac Hamilton farm the same that his said lines are lying in District No. 12 County and state above written also a small portion of land lying by the side of said farm so as to make a straight line with the Hamilton land to S. B. Ellis line, also to have the land that I own on the East side of the Hamilton farm after running back right poles from the corner of said tract at the East end of the line (viz) running north then to run east to William H. Hales line by his paying two hundred dollars the sum to be paid within three years after the date of the making of this will without interest to be applied as hereinafter directed I will and bequeath to my son Samuel Hall all the land that I own and am at my decease known as the home farm my wife Anne included except what may be required to pay my debts should any claim be set it shall be born as hereinafter directed. It is also my will that my son Samuel Hall shall have my young gray mare named Ball a cream saddle bridle blanket Bed and bedding and clothing now in my possession and known as his to have possession of the same by himself as guardian at my decease except so much as may be included in my wife Anne which he shall have possession of at her decease. (This is not to include the small portion of the home farm which my son Thomas S. Hall by his (viz) my son Samuel Hall paying to my daughter Mary Beth Hall when she comes to her dower and when I am gone to be worth one hundred and thirty five dollars and good cow and calf, two sheep and one hundred dollars in money, also to furnish her support while she is a house of God, home farm until she becomes or becomes to be twenty one years of age also to pay a reasonable amount for her education also in addition to the above. I will and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Ruth Hall a pair of saddle bridles blanket bed bedding and clothing now in my possession and known as hers. She delivered them to her guardian at my decease and further should my daughter Nancy Ruth die without him or before she becomes to the majority in years or in that case all that I have devised for her shall go to my son Sammie Hall. And further it is my will that the thirty hundred dollars due paid by my son Thomas Hall when paid shall be equally divided between my three daughters Ellen Phyllis Mary Douglas & Jennie Biddle and Jane Biddle his and my son William Hall. I will and bequeath the land that I own known as the William Hall farm the same that he now lives on in Dist. No. 12 County and state above named adjoining the lands of W. Peterson George Hamilton and others to my daughter-in-law Martha Hall wife of William Hall during her natural lifetime and at her decease one half of the above named land to go to her heirs if she has any by my son William Hall and the other half to go to my grand daughter Mary Jane Hall daughter of William Hall. It is also my will that the above named Mary Jane Hall shall have her support off of the above named land until she marries or be ^{the} ~~given~~ ^{from} ~~one~~ ^{year} ~~year~~ of age. And in case my daughter-in-law Martha Hall should die without him as above named all the land above named I shall go to my grand daughter Mary Jane Hall. And further it is my will that in no event shall my son William Hall be deprived of his support off of said land during his lifetime. I will that after my decease and such personal property as is not disposed of in this my will as shall belong to me at my decease shall be sold by my executor at public sale on a twelve month credit and the proceeds of said sale with all money that may be due me be applied to the payment of my debts and should there not be enough to pay my indebtedness I direct and empower my executor to sell land off of the
