Margaret Hankale Miller

I Margaret Hankale of Washington County Pennsico being old and infirm and viewing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, as it is appointed for all and to die, and I being in full health but of sound mind and judgment do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament here by marking void all other Wills by me before made.

First I will and bequeath my soul to Almighty God who gave it and that when I die that my body be decently buried in a proper manner at the Buffalo Ridge Church yard as near the place where my Father and Mother are buried as possible, and that all my just debts to gather with my funeral expenses be paid out of any money that I may die possessed of or that may first come into the hands of my Executors as soon after my death as possible.

Second. Whereas my sons J. C. H. & Hinkle Henshaw Hankale has had two lawsuits about my property and are both taxed with heavy Costs it is my Will that all the Costs of both Sons above named shall in the first place have the money that they have paid of their own refunded back to them, but if any brother or them has paid off any of my money in said Costs, that amount is not to stand so and not to be refunded back to them.

Thirdly; after the bequests just mentioned if there is any thing remaining after my death I will and bequeath that such remainder or balance be equally divided among six children if they are all to be found in three years after my death or third heirs if any they have, and if my son Joseph cannot be found in the space of three years after my death then my Executor may settle and divide his portion among the other five that is all living at that time and their trust done known to me.

Fourthly; I Will and bequeath to my Son Newstials one straw bed with a stone top, one valster and two pillows filled with feathers and three blue blankets, the blankets being most by his own and one long postel and instead of a chair at his bed the one that I am now using myself and also two Sheaf and arm Chair and and a small Chest or box that he claims.

Fifthly; I Will and bequeath to my daughter Margaret Collins one Washket to store about the remaining beds and head ~~to store~~, I allow to my other Daughters Elizabeth & Nancy to divide equally between them selves on the plains Elizabeth is to receive them unto two lots and let Nancy take choice of the lots.

Sixthly; I Will and bequeath that all the property left by my husband be divided between my two daughters Nancy & Elizabeth my Wearing Cloths my three daughters will divide them equally among themselves.

Seventhly; all the remaining property not hereto fore mentioned I Will that it be sold by my Executors at public auction and the money received for it to be divided among my heirs with the balance of my estate.

Eighthly; I hereby nominate and appoint R.S. Ferguson my Executor to carry this Will into effect.

In testimony whereof I do to this my last Will and Testament sign my name and affix my seal this 8th day of January 1861.

Signed Sealed & acknowledged in the presence of Wm. Hinkle on the 8th day of January 1861. The previous day being by the 2nd of January given to one of the executors to have and to hold well and the signature of said Wm. Hinkle over to pay were given to him & Hinkle from that date Hinkle is dead and no longer
