Will of Daniel Wrightsman

In the name of God Amen

I Daniel Wrightsman do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made

First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Catharine her support as long as she lives off the farm that I now own and live upon and that she shall not be disposed of the old home stead while she lives

Secondly I will that my two Daughters Mary and Martha have their support off the farm as long as they remain single and that they remain in the house with their mother while she lives and then if they give their consent to their Brothers Peter and John to sell the farm, they being single the farm may be sold by Peter and John for their own benefit by giving Mary two hundred dollars in cash, and all the bedding furniture casting &c that she accumulated by her own industry which she may have at my death, and Martha to be paid one hundred and seventy five dollars and all the bedding furniture casting &c she has accumulated by her industry which she may have at my death and that while they remain single they shall have the whole control of all monies that may come to their part but if they shall marry I will the money to them and their heirs

Thirdly I give and bequeath to my son Daniel his support off of my farm as long as he lives and I will that my Executors Peter and John act jointly as Surrogates for him and minister to him in every respect to make him comfortable,

Fourthly I hereby nominate and appoint my two sons Peter and John as my Executors to settle and transact all matters in settling up my Estate and carrying out my will. I further will that as my two sons Peter and John have done much hard labor and spent five or six hundred dollars in support of the family and the improving of the farm up to this time and may have much trouble if my will is complied with in the foregoing part I therefore give and bequeath to them jointly my farm that I now live on with all the appurtenances thereto and all the property and stock of every kind that they may have
