

Henry Linsmeaer Will

The foregoing will was presented to the County Court of Washington County Tenn. at its October Term 1880 and proven by the oaths of Solomon Hyatt and J. H. Bacon subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Nicolas Keefhaver Will

I Nicolas Keefhaver do publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills by me at any time made—

First, I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of any moneys that may first come into the hands of my Executor or Administrator.

Secondly, my will is that my wife Dicy Keefhaver if she should out live me that she is to have a neat living and support during her natural life off of all the lands that I now live on to be equally supported of the lands hereafter described and willed by me to my two sons, Shelton and Abraham Keefhaver and it is further directed by me that said Dicy Keefhaver shall elect and choose such property that may be on hand after my death to use for her own benefit during her natural life and sufficient Curtilage around the house and barn including the house and out buildings as well as the barn now occupied by me and the several lots around said building to cultivate for her own use and all said land now occupied by me on which I now live to be bound for her maintenance and care of her in her old days if she should get helpless and it is my will that my Executor or Administrator pay to said Dicy Keefhaver fifty dollars in moneys after my death out of any moneys that may come into my Executors hands on hands or derived from sales of any property of my Estate.

Thirdly my will is that my two sons Shelton and Abraham Keefhaver have all the plantation on which I now live on now occupied and cultivated by me as well as the Hampton farm with the following divisional line between them Beginning at two white oaks the extreme Eastern corner of the whole tract and corner to Jesse Bacon on the old James Heebles line thence running nearly a west course until the same strikes a fence running down a bluff of rocks at the field thence down said fence to the next field thence running a northerly direction along a fence until the same strikes another fence at the sage field thence running a westerly direction along said sage field fence until the same strikes an other fence known as the old sage field fence running in a northerly direction with said fence until the same reaches a point where it will make a straight line with what is called the Shelton lot to the land from thence across the land a southerly direction a straight line to the East corner of said Shelton Keefhaver's garden thence running a westerly direction a straight line passing near the Cedar press crossing the bridge across the ditch to a point on the south side of the ditch leaving a road on the south side of the ditch thence running a south westerly course adirect line to the water gap in an old field thence running a southerly direction across the meadow to the meadow fence on the south side of said meadow thence with said fence crossing the branch to a point near a heart cherry tree on the west side of said branch thence a westerly direction to a planted stone corner to Samuel Walker deceased tract of land now owned and occupied by Jesse Bacon my will is that my son Shelton Keefhaver have all the lands on the west side of said line as afore mentioned and my will is that my son Abraham Keefhaver have all the lands on the south side of said line as afore mentioned with the following stipulations first that the said Shelton & Abraham Keefhaver shall look after take good care and wait on Dicy Keefhaver their mother and will support her during her natural life and lastly pay to Henry Keefhaver their brother or two hundred dollars each in a reasonable time after my death.

Nicolas Keefhaver Will

Fourthly my will is that my son Henry Keefhaver have the plantation on which he now lives on known as the Jacob Heibert farm by paying to Henry Keefhaver three hundred dollars in a reasonable time after my death.

Fifthly my will is that my daughters and descendant of daughters Mary Bacon died her heirs or share of all the money derived from my personal property Elizabeth Squibb heirs have one share of the moneys derived from all my personal property Mary Squibb have one share of all the moneys derived from my personal property Delila Martin have one share of all the moneys derived from my personal property and all the money that may be derived from the personal property as well as all money that may be on hands after the death of my wife Dicy Keefhaber to be equally divided between said four heirs and descendant of heirs one whole share, the same being four whole shares.

Nicolas Keefhaber will

Sixthly after my death I direct that my Executor sell all my surplus property after Dicy Keefhaber stocks and chooses the property that she may want to be sold at public sale on reasonable terms with clemency.

Seventhly I do hereby constitute and appoint Henry Keefhaber my true and lawful Executor to this my last will without security which he is not required to give under my will. Given under my hand this the 28th day of May 1879
 Nicholas Keefhaber

Witness
 Nathan Shipley
 Saul C. Haver

The foregoing will was presented to the County Court of Washington County Tennessee for probate at its October Term 1880 and proven by the oaths of Nathan Shipley and Saul C. Haver subscribing witnesses thereto and was thereupon ordered to be entered of record.

E. A. Shipley Clerk

George G. King Will

I George G. King being of sound mind and memory but weak of body and knowing the uncertainty of human life do make ordain and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills that I may have heretofore made.

First I will to Montgomery Broyles twenty five acres of land adjoining the Thomas King and Jacob Range farms on the west side of the great road running from Louisville to Knoxville Tenn. the line to be run from said road west parallel with the division line between me and the Thomas King farm so as to cut off the aforesaid twenty five acres. Secondly - I will all my other land except the above devised twenty five acres and the hundred acres heretofore deeded to Montgomery Broyles to my son George King during his natural life and to go to his lawful children at his death but should my son George King at the time of his death leave no children born unto him in lawful wedlock then said land shall descend unto Montgomery Broyles children.

Third I will to my dearly beloved wife Argilla all my personal property of every kind in the house and on the farm except such articles as I shall herein after name.

Fourth I will my Black south tools and all my farming tools and my two mules jointly to Montgomery Broyles and my son George King to be kept on the farm and used by each of them and the mules never to be sold of the farm.

Fifthly - I will and devise that Montgomery Broyles pay to Oliver Broyles what I owe him supposed to be about seventy dollars and to John White what I owe him supposed to be about two hundred and fifty dollars and that he the said Montgomery release unto my Estate the debt I owe to him supposed to be about one hundred and thirty dollars and for these several amounts the twenty five acres of land devised shall be first held liable.

Sixthly - I will to my daughter Sarah Broyles Martha Range and Rosa Buckner fifty dollars each to be paid by my son George King within five years from my death and the land devised to the said George in this will to be first held liable for the payment of the several sums - Seventhly - I will to my grand children as follows to wit - to the children of Joseph and Margaret Crouch one dollar ~~one dollar~~ and to the children of Benjamin Kelley and Jane Kelley the sum of one dollar to be paid by George King within five years from my death.