

This 18th day of March A.D. 1888

Susan Emeline ^{her} Ford _{mark}

The above instrument of three sheets was at the date thereof declared to us by the testator Susan Emeline Ford to be her last will and testament and she then acknowledged to each of us that she had subscribed the same; and we at her request sign our names hereto as attesting witnesses

W. S. Porch

A. R. Johnson

The foregoing will was presented to the County Court at its April Term 1888 and proven by the oaths of W. S. Porch and A. R. Johnson the two subscribing witnesses thereto, and there being no exceptions taken, the same was admitted to probate and ordered to be entered of record.

Jacob Leah

County Court Clerk.

John A. Keplinger's Will.

I, John A. Keplinger of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee do make ordain and publish this my last will and testament.

First. I direct that my debts and funeral expenses shall be paid out of my estate.

Secondly. after the dower is allowed to my wife Elizabeth F. Keplinger then it is my will that my son William Rhea Keplinger shall have the residue of my estate.

Thirdly. I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my Father Samuel B. Keplinger executor of this my last will and testament. I wish my executor to exercise a sound and reasonable discretion in the management the business such as prudent man would exercise in regard to his own. in short to in short to manage my entire estate in such manner as he believes will most effectually carry out my will and benefit. My Heir William Rhea Keplinger for whom I have made provision the share of my son William Rhea shall be held in trust for him by my executor until he attain the age of twenty one or marries, at either period he shall be entitled to receive his share or portion of my estate.

Fourthly. It is my will that my executor shall sell my four head of horses now in Virginia together with one two horse wagon and set of harness also in Virginia and apply proceeds of such sale to the payment of a balance due by me on the farm I own in Washington County Virginia. Said farm contains about 350 acres and adjoins the lands of Col. J. C. Haynes, D. C. Campbell Jordan Plemon Gus Massey Mrs Willow and others and it is my will that my Executor shall have the discretion and sell said personal property at private or public sale as he may deem best.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this third page of this will on this 14th day of January 1888. in presence of the persons whose names are hereto annexed and who in my presence and at my request have subscribed this last will and testament

as Witnesses
John G. Blair
J. D. Keplinger
James N. Peoples

Interlineations & erasures
before signing
John A. Keplinger

The foregoing will was presented to the County Court at its April Term 1888 and proven by the oaths of J. D. Keplinger and James N. Peoples two of the subscribing Witnesses thereto and there being no exceptions taken, the same was admitted to probate and ordered to be entered of record.