

John L. Murray's Will

State of Tennessee Washington County
October the 8th 1881

I John L. Murray do make this my last will and Testament First - I will that my body have a decent Burial 2nd I will that my debts be paid be paid out of any monies or effects that may be on hand then I will that my farm be divided by the following lines Beginning at a white Oak Corner to Hodges & Murray then down by the Direction with a fence to the Rail Road thence with the Rail Road East Corner with the lane at the Pitkey place then down with that road round down to blow the Sawmill as to give a yard for logs and lumber then to the Creek the west side for my son then the East side for my Daughter Mancy All provided they furnish my wife Rebecca L. Murray with a support suitable to her condition and wait on her necessities or cause it to be done but if they fail or Refuse to do this then the whole farm with the Exception of the House and lot where my son now lives and the Sawmill and a lot for yard be Excepted for my son's use but the Balance of the farm is to be at her Disposal During her natural life or so much of it as may be Required for her use then after my wife is deceased then to be as above also the Stock and household plunder divided with my son and Daughter if they can do it then selves without hard feelings if not let some honest person do it for them Each of them can have their share by that I hold and this is a good deed to Each of them

Given under my hand this day and date above written

John L. Murray

I also appoint them named Thos. L. Murray to see that the foregoing Will Carried out as Expressed so that Each may have the Amount that I have allotted to them

Attest

A. F. Snyder
C. P. White

John L. Murray

The foregoing will was presented in Open Court at its Feb. Term 1882 and proven by the oaths of the two subscribing witnesses thereto and there being no exceptions taken the same was admitted to probate and ordered to be entered of record

Jacob Leab CLK

Albert King's Will

I Albert King of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory do ordain, make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all other wills that I may at any other time have made.

First. it is my will that my Executor herein after named shall out of the first money that may come into his hands pay all of my just debts.

Second - I will to my beloved wife. All of my property both real and personal of every description during her natural life and at her death to be equally divided between the heirs of the body of my wife viz. Lafayette, William C. and Mary, the real estate to be divided in kind giving each one an equal share of land. It is my will that after my death that my daughter Caroline be paid one hundred dollars in cash within one year after my death, provided she outlives me. It is my will that my son Lafayette King execute this will and that he be not required to give and bond or Security, when entering on said duty.
Witness my hand and seal this the 29th day of March 1882

John Saylor

Joshua Boring

Albert King

The foregoing Will was presented to the County Court at its March Term 1882 and proven by the oaths of John Saylor and Joshua Boring, the two subscribing witnesses thereto and there being no exceptions taken the same was admitted to probate and ordered to be entered of record.