J. C. Glas's will

In the name of God Amen - I Joseph C. Glas of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, ordain and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

I hereby give and bequeath all my property both real and personal to my beloved wife, Orphela J. Glas except one thousand dollars gold, which I bequeath to my beloved Child Mary Josephine. I desire this one thousand dollars to be invested in what is known as the New-bernham Twenty year five per cent Bonds with interest payable in New Orleans, to the Child's Mother Or. Sclandium. But the Bond or Bonds must be Registered in the name of my Child Mary Josephine Glas, and no Guardian can sell said Bonds or use them, except to collect the interest thereon. In case of the death of my Child this bequest shall go to its mother. But in case of the death of each or both of them, I desire it to be equally divided between my brother and Sisters. The one half interest in the Michelsberry Plantation near Memphis Tenn I wish sold as soon as possible and the proceeds given to my wife, except ^{and twenty five} $475 four hundred dollars which I desire paid over to W. M. Nash of Stanton Haywood Co Tennessee. This is the only debt I owe. I desire the same repaid to above shall be purchased out of the ~~rest~~ proceeds of the sale of the place known as Glas Place in Washington Co Tennessee near Leesburg, but my Executor is directed not to sacrifice this property. If it is held for any time, I wish none but careful and faithful renters to have it. After paying taxes the balance of rents due, must be paid over to my wife, but I want the place sold when a reasonable price can be obtained. No moneys obtained for property debts or rents can be loaned to private individuals
