

Martha M Weyly

The foregoing will was proven in open <sup>court</sup> at the July Term 1876 by the oaths of A. E. Jackson and Joseph Henderson the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded

Rachel C. McLin's Will

I Rachel C. McLin the widow of Richard McLin dec'd. and of the County of Washington in the State of Tennessee being of feeble health of body, but of sound mind and memory call ~~ing~~ to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and being inclined to make such disposition of the little property that that God my very gracious Heavenly father has blessed me with so as to do what I think is right therein, and as will be satisfactory to my mind, and so far as may be, to prevent any controversy over the same do make and publish this my last will and testament and do hereby revoke and make void any will or testament by me heretofore made 1st It is provided by the last will and testament of Richard McLin my husband that my funeral expenses should be paid out of the estate he died seized and possessed of which I still desire to be done, without appropriating any thing I have since that time acquired by my exertion and economy ~~and~~ there having been an adjustment between my son Robert McLin on the one hand and my three daughters who were then living to wit Elizabeth Ann ~~and~~ Lucinda C. Cannon and Sophiah C. on the other hand, whereby all the personal property of which my husband died seized and possessed of subject to my lifetime use became the property to be enjoyed by them at my death of the said three daughters to the exclusion of the said Robert who was fully compensated for his interest by said daughter. 2nd My daughter Elizabeth Ann having died, all her distributives to wit the said Robert A. the said Lucinda C. and her husband Alexander Cannon the said Sophiah C. and I, all being of full age met and divided her effects equally between us each party receiving their own the said Sophiah C. and I retaining ours at the place of division it being our home. 3rd All the property that fell to my lot in said division of as a distributive of the estate of of said

Rachel C. McLin's Will

Elizabeth Ann and all the property purchased by me on that occasion in acquiring said division together with all the property that I have in any way acquired since the death of my said husband Richard McLin I do will bequeath and make than to my said daughter Sophiah C. and her heirs and assigns to have after my death and all as all the property effects debts and values of every kind of <sup>which</sup> I may die the owner, but the said Sophiah is to pay any debts I may owe which will be small if any, so make it more easy to ascertain and distinguish the property I own in my own right absolutely from that I am holding of my said husband's estate a portion of them are herein set forth, to wit eleven green box of quilts, counterpane, blankets, sheets, pillow slips, towels, &c. the box containing them not mine I have other articles of like character not in said box, <sup>the</sup> one dozen white potatoes, a large white duck, half dozen of cups and saucers, two large pitchers, two colts, a scowl, one year old Colt Spring the other a bay a sucking colt this last summer the price of which I gave to said Sophiah C. long since fourteen sheep now on hand and their increase a muddy bundle hider near four years old and Spring that I bought of the distributor one live birch spinning wheel one shawl plan one cutting knife one mangle fork and shawl, scythe and cradle, and all the corn, wheat, oats, hay, feed, straw and other provisions of flour meal and <sup>all</sup> other provisions that are or may be on hands or belong to me at my death, it is becoming that we should not only have but, render a reason for our action I state in controlling reasons for the foregoing disposition of my effects, first that said Sophiah C. has been with me and employing a most constant persevering ~~and~~ and self denying energy about my business and has been a principal means of making the property secondly I have been much of my time sick and requiring much personal attention and <sup>she</sup> was the only one of my children that used to render me this attention and she has rendered it to me most faithfully both by day and by night I nominate and appoint John B. McLin my executor of this my last will and testament and call upon him and W. B. Crockett Shanks to witness it this the 27th day of Decr. 1874
Attest John B. McLin
Rachel C. McLin
W. B. Crockett Shanks

The foregoing will was proven in open Court at the July Term 1870 by the oath of John B. M'Clure and W. D. Crockett, both the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

J. H. Gresham Clerk

Jack Gillespie's Will

This the 11th August 1870.

I, John Gillespie of Col<sup>o</sup> commonly called Jack, do make & publish this my last will and testament, 1st I appoint my Brother Preston Gillespie of Col<sup>o</sup> & John H. Gresham my Executors of this my last will & testament, I being of sound mind, do bequeath unto my daughter Hattie the two acres of land, be the same more or less the on which we now live, being the lot of land we bought of M. J. Jerald's, further I give to the said Hattie one set of plates, one set of Sea Knives & saws, one set of 6 glass Tumblers, one salt cellar, one bed & bedstead & the two calico quilts, two water buckets, one coffee pot, 3 Tea Spoons, 3 table Spoons & one Scoop Spoon, 6 Knives & forks, 3 Milk Cooles, one Jar, 3 Chains, one basket, one fire shovel the wash pot & tub, two ovens & pot Hooks, one doe pan & sifter the cupboard and the flour & Melanes Bannels, further I give to my daughter Hattie the wheat in the Hogs head 6<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> bushels, also my interest in the Corn Crop growing on Isaac Broyles farm, say one third, said Broyles to retain out of my interest any thing I may be justly due him & she to pay R. B. Broyles the amount I am due him for borrowed wheat and M. J. Jerald's the balance due on said lot of land & the amount that may be required to pay for perfecting deed & survey. I further give Hattie the lead pig she to pay Isaac Broyles $1.<sup>50</sup> One dollar & fifty cents. further I give to Hattie one third of the wheat raised at Mary Mansfords, one third of the sweet & Irish potatoes crop growing at home. Now further and lastly I give to Hattie my mare plow & 9 ears of shovel Matthes two hoes drawing knife saw and gun she to sell the same to best Advantage & apply the proceeds to defray my funeral expenses, the balance to go to my Creditors & that she employ my two brothers Washington & Preston to see that I am decently buried by my father & mother in the meadow near the old Allen Gillespie hogstean. Now I further bequeath to my son James 6 Plates, 2 knives, one jar, one chain, one pot, one 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of the wheat raised at Mary Mansfords, one third of sweet & Irish Potatoes prop at home, three bedsteads. Now further I finally give to my daughter Martha 16 Plates, one dish, one Ven Pan, 2 books, one Jar, one bucket, 1 sugar bowl, one cream Pitcher, one third of the wheat raised at Mary Mansfords, one third of the sweet & Irish Potatoes, in witness whereof I have this the day & date above written signed sealed & delivered this my last Will & testament in the presents of the subscribing witnesses

Test

E. J. Mathis

Isaac Broyles

James McAllister

Jack Gillespie

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by each of the subscribing witnesses on oath at the Sept Term 1870 and ordered to be recorded. And Preston Gillespie & John H. Gresham Executors therein named were permitted to give bond & qualify.

J. H. Gresham Clerk