Jacob Murray Will.

I know now all persons by their presents that I Jacob Murray being in full health but of sound mind and disposing memory calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament revoking and making null and void all other former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First: I hereby nominate and appoint my nephew A. H. Murray as my Executor to carry into effect this my last will and testament.

Second: My desire is that my Executor shall as soon as he can conveniently so to do to pay my Funeral expenses and all of my just debts out of my estate.

My will is that my beloved wife Mary E. Murray is to have all her personal effects such as personal and mixed property which belonged to her when she was married to me, also all other property that she may have made since our marriage.

Third: My will is that my beloved wife is to have one third of all the real estate that I may die seized and possessed of including all the buildings to have and to hold the same during her natural life and at her death the same to revert by descent, or otherwise if my beloved wife Mary E. Murray should prefer one hundred dollars instead of the One third of the real estate it is my will that she be paid the One hundred dollars by my son Samuel J. Murray for which she will give my son a quit claim so said one third of the real estate if she so elects to take the One hundred dollars in lieu of the one third of the real estate, my will is that my Executor shall so soon after my decease as convenient expose to Public sale all of my personal property to be sold on twelve months credit, and to apply the proceeds of such sales to the payment of the necessary expenses, secondly, to the payment of my just debts and if the same realized from the sales of the personal property is not sufficient to satisfy the debts then my executor shall sell at private or public sale so much of the real estate as will be sufficient to pay the remaining

John Longmire's Will.

I John Longmire being believing that my natural life is drawing near to a close, do make and publish this as my last will and testament.

1st I will and bequeath that after my death my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid, out of the first money that may come into the hands of my executor.

2nd I will and bequeath that if my wife Elizabeth Longmire should outlive me she shall have full control and possession of all my Personal & Real Estate during her natural life-time.

3rd I will and bequeath that after the death of me and my wife Elizabeth Longmire, that all my personal and real estate be equally divided among my lawful heirs to wit:
 Joseph A. Longmire, Abigail Danner, John R. Longmire, William Longmire, Montgomery Longmire, Samuel A. Longmire, and Alexander Longmire, said seven heirs may either divide the land and personal property as they may agree or with the same and the Executors divide
 the money among the seven heirs above mentioned.
 If the changes against the heirs is not equal they must be made equal in that and then be made equal
 as above mentioned.

4th I appoint my two sons John R. Longmire and Alexander W. Longmire my Executors to execute and carry into effect this will after the death of me and my wife Elizabeth Longmire.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal. This 17 day of March 1875. My Executors are not required to give security.
