I Margaret L Stevens of the County of Washington and State of Pennsylvania being in feeble health, do make and publish this as my last will and Testament in manner and form following to wit.

First. — I will and bequeath to my beloved Sister Estelle L Cox all my estate both real, personal, and mixed, consisting of one one fourth interest in the farms owned by my father Isaac Stevens & Co. in the County of Sullivan and State aforesaid the several tracts or parcels of land owned by my father contained about two hundred acres more or less, one fourth of which I bequeath to my said Sister E. L. Cox.

My personal property is not very much but owing to the kind treatment of my said sister and her husband Mr John L Cox I feel it just and proper that I should will all my effects to them after my decease, believing from their past kind treatment to me, that they will continue the same, as well as look after, and take care over of my other sister brother, to wit Hiram & Elizabeth McDonalds. The said property shall go into the possession of my said Sister E. L. Cox immediately after after all my debts and other necessary expences are paid by her.

Second. — Having full confidence in the integrity and upright character of my brother-in-law Mr John L Cox. I hereby nominate and appoint him my executor to carry this will into effect.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my signature and seal this 1st day of August A.D. 1874.

Margaret L Stevens (Seal)

Signed sealed and acknowledged in the presence of us who have done the same at the request of the Testator August 1st 1874.

J. W. Mitchell
John F. Gusham

The foregoing will was proven in open Court at the November term 1874 by the oaths of J. W. Mitchell and John F. Gusham the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And John C. Cox the recorder there named appeared in open Court and gave bond and qualified as the law directs.
