

Samuel Garsts Will.

I Samuel Garst of the County of Washington State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this as my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time made.

First I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid, out of any moneys on hand at my death, or may first come into the hands of my Executor.

Secondly I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Susannah Garst all of my Estate both real and personal for and during her natural life or widowhood, and at her death, or in the event she should marry again, I direct all my estate real and personal be sold to the highest bidder for cash, on a credit of twelve months, and the proceeds thereof to be equally divided amongst all my children.

I direct my wife, pay to my children as they arrive at age, such property as she can spare from the farm, and take their receipt for the same, or charge them with whatever they may receive, it being my object in this will to give all my estate real and personal to my wife during her natural life or widowhood and should she be able to give my children a part of it on their arriving at twenty one years of age, (still retaining enough to keep her comfortable.) for her to do so, taking care to make the children all equal. And should she wish to dispose of any of the property by giving the same to any of the children, the same must be valued to them by two free holders, disinterested in the matter.

Lastly I hereby nominate and appoint my son-in-law William A. Sharp sole Executor of this my last will and Testament, placing confidence in his integrity and faithfulness.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of April 1869, ^{his} Samuel Garst ^{mark} seal in the presence of us.
