

Elizabeth Keys Will.

I Elizabeth Keys do make & publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all others.

- 1st It is my will and wish that my funeral expenses be paid first.
- 2nd That all my just debts be paid and in order to execute the first and second clause of this will I authorise my Executor hereinafter named to sell such of my personal property as he may deem for the best interest of my estate as soon after my death as practicable.
- 3rd My Executor hereinafter named is directed to pay up in full for the remainder interest I purchased in my dower for which I executed two promissory notes with A. McHop as my security upon which notes or one of them my son London has made one payment and in order to execute this clause my said Executor is authorised if necessary to sell personal property sufficient to raise the sum required.
- 4th It is my will and wish that my two children Minerva Neys and London Keys have my entire estate real and personal the same to be equally divided between them after the preceding clauses of this will are executed. I appoint Elias Mitchell my Executor In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal on this the 28th day of March 1875.

Attest

W. R. Service
John Allison Jr.

Elizabeth Keys
mark

The foregoing will was proven in open court at the City of Penn 1875 by the oaths of W. R. Service and John Allison for the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Martha M. Wylys Will.

In the name of God Amen I Martha M. Wyly of the County of Washington and State of Minnesota being of body, but of sound mind, disposing memory, realising the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and desiring to arrange my temporal affairs do make and ordain this my last will and testament. Yet when it shall please Almighty God to call me hence I bequeath my soul to him who gave it and my body to the earth to be decently interred. My will is that my Executor (hereafter named) shall take into possession as early as practicable after my decease all my personal effects consisting of money, valuable accounts, stock of furniture & out of which after paying my funeral expenses and all my just debts, to dispose of the residue as hereafter directed. I will and bequeath to my adopted son Joseph Atley by one hereon now bed stand and feather bed and bed covering two silver table spoons five silver tea spoons and one tankard together with a portion of the library purchased of the Administ. of my deceased husband estate my son Charles selecting such books of the collection as he may desire. I give to my son Charles Atley my Will and bequeath all the remainder of my personal property of every kind whatsoever to be delivered to him upon his arriving at the age of maturity except such portion as my Executor may find it necessary to settle to pay just liabilities or save from waste or loss which he may do at private or public sale the proceeds of which may be paid over to the Guardian of the said Charles Atley for his maintenance & education for the purpose of carrying out the provisions and bequests set forth in this my last will & testament hereby constitute and appoint my dear Brother Finley Henderson Esq. of the City of New York my Executor having implicit confidence in his integrity, my will is and I so direct that he shall only be required to give his individual bond for the execution of the trust herein confided to him. & in the event of my death before my son Charles becomes of age my wish that my father Joseph Henderson be selected as the Guardian of the child during his minority to care for his interests both real and personal of whom no security shall be required. In testimony whereof I set my hand and affixed my seal this 1st day of May 1875. In presence of A. E. Jackson

Martha M. Wyly seal

Martha Mc Wely

The foregoing will was proven in open court the 1st day of July Term 1875 by the oaths of A. E. Jackson and Joseph Henderson the two subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded

Rachel O' McLin's Will

In Rachel O' McLin the widow of Richard McLin Oct. and of the County of Washington in the State of Pennsylvania being of feeble health of body, but of sound mind and memory call ing to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and being inclined to make such disposition of the little property that that God my very gracious heavenly father has blessed me with so as to do what I think is right therewith, and as will be satisfactory to my mind, and so far as may be, to prevent any controversy over the same do make and publish this my last will and testament and do hereby revoke and make void any will or testament by me heretofore made &c. It was provided by the last will and testament of Richard McLin my husband that my funeral expenses should be paid out of the estate he died seized and possessed of which I still desire to be done, without appreciating any thing I have since that time acquired by my industry and economy 2nd There having been an adjustment between my son Robert McLin on the one hand and my three daughters who were then living to wit Elizabeth Ann Lucinda C. Carson and Sophiah C. on the other hand, whereby all the personal property, of which my husband died seized and possessed of subject to my lifetime use became the property to be inherited by them at my death of the said three daughters to the exclusion of the said Robert who was fully compensated for his interest by said daughter; 3rd My daughter Elizabeth Ann having died, left her distribution to her the said Robert A. the said Lucinda C. and her husband Alexander Carson the said Sophiah C. and I all being of full age met and divided her effects equally between us each party receiving them over the said Sophiah C and I retaining ours at the place of division it being our home. 4th All the property that fell to my lot in said division of as a distributee of the estate of of said

Rachel O' McLin's Will

Elizabeth Ann and all the property purchased by me on that occasion in dividing said division together with all the property that I have in any way acquired since the death of my said husband Richard McLin I do will bequeath and make than to my said daughter Sophiah C and her heirs and assigns to have after my death as well as all the property effects to decs and takers of every kind of which my decs the owner, but the said Sophiah is to pay any debts I may owe which will be small if any, to make it more easy to ascertain and distinguish the property I leave in my own right absolutely from that I am holding of my said husband's estate a portion of them are known set forth to wit a large green box of quilts, counterpanes, blankets, sheets, pillow slips towels, &c. the box containing these & L wine & the other articles of like character not in said box, one dozen white plates, a large white desk, half dozen of cups and saucers, two large pitchers, two cills a serval, one year old last spring the other a bay a sucking colt this last summer the former of which I gave to said Sophiah long since pasture sheep now in hand and their increase a muly bridle horse nine years old and spring that I bought of the distributor on the horse property plan on travel plain one cutting knife one man's fork and shovel scythe and cradle; and all the corn, wheat oats, barley, turnips and other provisions of less meal meat and other provisions that are or may be on hands or belong to me at my death; it is becoming that we should not only have but render a reason for our action I state in controlling reasons for the foregoing disposition of my effects, first that said Sophiah C has been with me and employing a most constant presence and self denying energy about my person and has been a principal means of making the property secondly I have been much of my time sick and requiring much personal attention and was the only one of my children fit suited to render me this attention and she has rendered it to me most faithfully both by day and by night I nominate and appoint John B. McLin my executor of this my last will and testament and call upon him and W. P. Crook shanks to witness it this the 29th day of Decr 1874 Attest John B. McLin

Rachel O' McLin
w.w.

W. P. Crook shanks,