

John Fairs Will

July 15th. 1788.

The last will and testament of John Fair is that he leaves to his young wife Agnes Fair all his household furniture and disposal of the stocks for the use of our children and the use of the plantation for him and them as long as she shall remain widow the land is to be divided among my sons equally and to my daughter Ruth Fair I leave one negro boy named Punch to be at the choice of my wife to see him and keep the money or the boy for her which she pleases.

Rosanna ^{his} Fair witness

John Fair

The foregoing will was proven in court by the oath of Rosanna Fair the subscribing witness thereto at November Sessions 1788 and entered to be recorded Agnes Fair qualified as executrix to said will

John Ballard Will

State of North Carolina

Washington County

The same to the will of John Ballard more or less the following is the substance of the same to wit the said John Ballard was born and died seven hundred & eighty. The same was proved in court on the twentieth day of October anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty. Before the following witnesses, That the said John Ballard did give and bequeath unto Mary Ballard his dear and well beloved wife all and every part of his the said John Ballards estate belonging of his goods and chattels to belong unto the said Mary Ballard and unto her sole use and disposal as she may think proper In witness whereof we have interchangeably him and keep the money or the boy for her which she pleases.

Rosanna ^{her} Fain
mark.

John Fain

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oath of Rosanna Fain the subscribing witness thereto at November Sessions 1788 and Obed to be recorded. Agnes Fain qualified as executrix to said will.

John Ballard Will

State of North Carolina, Washington County - The undersigned will of John Ballard made & confirmed the fiftieth day of October the first year of the said seven hundred & eighty - The same was read in court on the twentieth day of October anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty. Being called to, That the said John Ballard did give and bequeath unto Mary Ballard his dear and well beloved wife all and every part of his the said John Ballards estate belonging of his goods and whittles to belong unto the said Mary Ballard and unto her sole use and disposal as she may think proper In witness whereof we have interchangeably set our hands and seals this day atonsaid

Joseph ^{her} F. Nation, Ellenor ^{mark} F. Nation,
Anne ^{mark} F. Ballard

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Joseph Nation Ellenor Nation & Anne Ballard the witnesses there to - recorded November Sessions 1788