To this sum there will be added several small items as they accrue, such as one third of the corn crop, pasture, garden, dwelling rent, etc., and this will necessitate and amend inventory at the time land is sold.

For your information, will say that I have been corresponding with the heirs of E.S. Hulien, the beneficiaries named in the will insofar as the land devise. In said will is concerned, as to the advisability of waiting until next year to sell said land, in view of the present financial depression, and have not as yet received any definite advice from them on that subject, and, unless urgently requested to sell immediately, I shall postpone sale until sometime during the year 1922. I now propose to rent the dwelling and garden on said premises, or a part thereof, and to turn in the rentals received therefrom as a part of the personal estate when the land is disposed of.

There were some personal effects that were divided among the heirs of the personal estate before I qualified as Executor, and same did not come into my hands, but they were of small moment, and I believe they fell into the proper hands. This is as full a report as I can make at this time.

The invoice price of the above is not available to me, and hence I cannot give the cost price. Assuming that the selling price is about 50% higher than the cost price, it is my judgment that the approximate worth of the entire lot of properties and effects coming into my hands is not over $460.00.
 I certify that the above and foregoing constitutes a true and accurate inventory of all property coming into my hands, from the best information available; and that each side of said list of properties I know of nothing further that belongs the assignor or that can be reached.
