

Jonathan Beecher

William Beans will

In the name of God Amen I William Beane last being exalted in mind and memory am calling to mind the mortality of my own body & knowing that I is approached for all men am to die do make and Ordain this to be my last will & testament revoking all others by me made first Principally and first of all I give and bequeath my soul to almighty God relying on his mercy through Christ and my body to the dust from whence it came & as touching my worldly estate wherewith it has been pleased God to bless me with in this life I give and bequeath in the following manner & form first of all I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Liddy one myn girl named Grace and all my horses & cattle & hogs & Sheep & all my household goods together with the land & mill whereon I now live during her natural life & after her decease the land and mill to be given to my beloved son Rappin & the remainder that is given to my beloved wife at her decease to be equally divided amongst my children and all the residue and remainder of my estate real & personal after my last debts being paid to be equally divided amongst my children children also I leave my sons William & Robert and George executors of this my last will

Witness
my hand
William X Beane
Mark

Signed sealed published &c delivered in the presence of us

This 6th day of January 1782

Thomas Haddon

John T. Ballou

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Testimony of Thomas Haddon one of the Subscribing witnesses at May Session 1782 and Ordained to be recorded