Ginnomittie Pitt

It is my wish that A. Montague my executor to exercise his own judgments with regard to all of my bad debts he is authorized to give time by having them secured or take for the payment. It is not my will that he should be bound to settle & pay in two years. I wish him to have as much time as he thinks necessary Nov 30 1833

Franklin Witherspoon

Abraham Montague Letter Testamentary

State of Tennessee Wayne County

It appearing to the Court that Franklin Witherspoon had died leaving a written will in which you are appointed executor which has been duly proved in open Court and you having given bond and qualified according to law and it having been ordered by the said Court that letters testamentary issue to you. These are therefore to empower you the said Abraham Montague to enter upon the execution of said will and take into your possession all the property and to make to the most court a perfect inventory thereof and make due collection of all debts and after paying all the just demands against the testator and settling up the business of said estate according to law you will pay over and deliver the property and effects that may remain in your hands and do all other thing that may be required according to the provisions of the said will and the laws of the land.

Witness my hand and seal at office the 5th day of December 1833 and the 78th year of American Independence
