In and for Madison County & Circuit Court James A. Hargrave Esq. presiding Judge in and for Madison County Circuit Court the above and foregoing writing purporting to be the last will & testament of Jonathan C. Elliott deceased was produced in Court and was duly proven by the oath of Jefferson Grimes and William Singleton the subscribing witnesses thereto who severally swore that the said testator Jonathan C. Elliott executed and published the said writing in their presence as his last will and testament and that they subscribed their names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other and that they believed the said testator was of sound mind and disposing memory at the time of executing and publishing said will. The said witnesses further proved that the said testator died in this County and that he had property here at the time. It is therefore adjudged by the Court that said writing is duly proven and is hereby established as the last will & testament of Jonathan C. Elliott deceased whereupon Thomas C. Owen and William Moorman the Executors named in said will came into Court and took the oath required by law and letters of probate is granted them as Executors the said testator having in the said will dispensed with security.
