Elizabeth Carter will

Whereas my late husband David Carter died Seized and possessed of an estate Real and personal situate in the County of Wayne and State of Tennessee and Which descended to myself as his widow and to his children as his distributees and heirs at law out of his Real Estate my said husband was allotted and assigned to me by a decree of the County Court for said County and the Remainder of said Real Estate including the Remainder Interest of that part assigned to me as my Dower together with the Slaves belonging to said estate were sold by a decree of said Court in order that a division of the proceeds thereof might be made and at my Children who then resided with me I the said Purchaser of all of said Slaves except the Slave man John and of all the Land except a portion purchased by Lot Purchase, and another portion purchased by Samuel L. Brown the proceeds of the Sale of said Lands and Slaves after deducting the Cost and Expenses to each of my said Children the sum of five hundred and forty seven dollars for which these children arrived at the age of twenty years Expensive to the Clerk and Master of said Court then Receipts which was received by him as Cash from me upon my said Purchase or have since Executed to me as their Executor their Receipts but without the payment of the Money to them but for the consideration and with the understanding that the said Lands and Slaves except such as I might think proper to return for my use and benefit during my life, or which I might think most advantageous to sell and purchase other property in its place and stand which when purchased should be divided up, as the other property should be equally divided between my said children. Sarah & Leetia Hannah to Leetia & Leetia M. Carter Daniel S. Carter Joel M. Carter and Division to take place living to each his portion. When the said was closed as he came necessary the whole of said property to be divided between my children a & my death upon which of said my children and understanding my said and my said children have ever since been living together in common as one family and which I am still willing and anxious shall be carried out, believing that my share in said said estate is not more than my said children should have for my support and maintenance, I Elizabeth Carter being of said and disposing myself and memory for the purpose of expressing the my said and the following as my last will and testament.

First, I direct that my funeral expenses be paid out of any money of which I may die possessor or which may first come into the hands of my executor. Secondly, I direct that the lands and slaves and their increase which I purchased at the sale of the estate of my said deceased Daniel Carter the title of which was vested in me alone by the decree of, of the Circuit Court of Wayne County, of which I may die seized and placed in holding that portion thereof by my executors and in clearing my said or other estate which I have since purchased and any and all other estate real or personal of which I may die seized and possessed be equally divided between my said children Sarah & Leetia, Hannah M. Carter Daniel S. Carter Joel M. Carter and my said children each first accounting and being charged with the said portion of said property, as they may before that time have received under my division of the property so purchased or owned by me which I may direct make, and should any of my said children call on me to account to them as executor for any sum with which I am so charged from such sum as they may receive is to be charged to them and deducted from their residue interest in my said estate as though the sum had been advanced to them as above provided. Lastly, I nominate appoint Daniel Carter and executor of this my last will and testament made and published as such this 1st day of Sep. 1855 the foregoing last will and testament Elizabeth Carter was made and published by the testator in the presence of our presence and we present subscribers our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of each other.

William F. Strayhorn, will

State of Tennessee
 Wayne County. We John L. Porter and J. L. Hart having been called upon by W. F. Strayhorn in his last time on the 30th day of May 1862, at his residence in the County & State aforesaid, to prepare that he made and published to us his last, non-competitive will and testament for the disposition Management and Control of his whole Estate both Real and Personal of which he was then lawfully seized and possessed. First, he constituted and appointed his wife Jane M. Strayhorn his Executrix and his son William F. Strayhorn Executor of his non-competitive will to pay off and discharge all of his just debts and to settle his will as herein after provided.
 Second, that his said Executrix and Executor should to take hold and possess and control his whole Estate both Real and Personal of which he might be seized and possessed and keep the same together under their the said Executrix and Executors, Control and Management, to conduct the business of his said Estate in the same form and manner as he did in his lifetime heretofore Third, that he did not want any distribution made with his children in any division of his Estate, except with his daughter Emily Collins to whom all property heretofore given to her, has been bequeathed, and any such division interest, which she the said Emily Collins has in his Estate should be set lawfully set apart for her sole and separate use On testimony whereof, we have this present subscribed our names and affixed our seals this 31st day of May 1862.
