The administrators hold a note on William Simpson for "One hundred dollars with interest for five years" which was due to and the 4th day of June A. D. 1841. This note was not returned in any Inventory and is payable to John H. Anderson Guardian for the heirs of William Anderson & Co. but it is a good for personal property of said William Anderson & Co. at the last will. In taking this account the Part of the real estate of which said William Anderson was seized and the heirs of the same belonging to his estate (except for one) are not included. I mention now the said John H. Anderson who is also Guardian for Elizabeth Anderson, Mary Anderson, and Peter Anderson, infant children of said William Anderson deceased bring into this settlement and account, the charges which he has as such Guardian for the board, cloathing, tuition &c. of his wards but he reserves all these matters to be brought into his account against his said wards on a settlement. Hence it may be that the above sum of One thousand two hundred and ninety eight dollars 16 $\frac{3}{4}$ cents may be materially diminished on such settlement being made. There is no allowance for services of the administrators herein contained; the amount of such allowance being left to the discretion of the Court.

 The following notes and accounts were returned in due season but not yet collected, they being as follows:

One note on Nathan Bennett due 19 Nov. 1829	$ 2.00

An account on John Carpenter	1.91
James M. Glenn account not collected	1.56
An account on John Ginn (paid)	5.31 $\frac{1}{2}$

Amounting to $

These accounts if collected in future will create and additional charge against the administrators.

Alexander B. Lane certifies that he made the calculation of the interest in the foregoing account, and he deems it accurately calculated but it was not counted with principal as to the time in some instances, throwing off odd days and in others including a few days but to take it as a whole if mistakes in calculation have intervened the error if any in this case is against the administrators.

Alex. B. Lane.

The undersigned Commissioners appointed by either County Court
