Last Will and Testament of Robert Anderson deceased

In the name of God Amen, I Robert Anderson Senior of the County of White and State of Tennessee being in perfect health and of sound and disposing mind and memory and viewing the uncertainty of the body and the uncertainty of human life and being desirous to dispose of such property as it hath pleased God in his providence to confer on me with, I give first my soul to God from whom it came and my body to the dust from whence it was made to be buried in a decent manner after the order of the religious and Christian forms prevalent in the community at the sole discretion of my Executor hereinafter named and as relates to my earthly property hereby design of the same in manner and form following. To wit. I do hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Anderson the tract of Land whereon I now reside containing two hundred and eighty acres together with all the buildings out houses and improvements of every description thereon being together with the entire crop now growing or being of every kind and description with all the stone held and within furnished, also all the of my kind and description ruggen and farming utensils of every description being on and belonging to said tract at the time of my death to be by her fully quietly and peaceably enjoyed for and during the full space and term of her natural life entirely free from any hindrance or incumbrance what so ever

Item 2nd I have heretofore set apart given and conveyed to my two sons James Anderson and Robert Anderson each in their life time a tract of Land and sundry fences and articles of personal property which I intended and deemed a proper portion of my estate and effects, notwithstanding it is my wish and desire and I do therefore further give and bequeath to each of the Children and lawful heirs of my two sons James and Robert Anderson the sum of one dollar each to be raised out of my estate and paid to them by my executor hereinafter named

Item 3rd I have heretofore given to my two daughters Annay Anderson and Martha Anderson each a portion of my estate as I at that time deemed proper and and sufficient and what I then designed to be their entire share and part in my estate but now think fit and proper and accordingly I give and bequeath unto my two said daughters Annay Anderson and Martha Anderson one Brother bed and furniture each to be raised out of my estate and delivered to them as a full portion by my Executor

Item 4th I have heretofore given to my daughter Elizabeth Copeland who since her marriage has retained this life all that portion of property and effects each of my estate which I deemed proper and all that I designed giving her at any time but in consequence of her death and making further to promote the interest of her children do hereby give and bequeath to each
