James Simpson's Will.

In the name of Almighty God, I James Simpson of White County and State of Tennessee, being now confined to my house by a serious illness which considering my time of life is undoubtedly critical, but being nevertheless in the full possession of all my mental faculties, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made. I Commit my soul into the hands of my heavenly Father, trusting in his infinite goodness and mercy. Item 1st I direct that my body be decently entred at my present residence in a manner suitable to my condition in life, and as to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to entrust me with I dispose of the same as follows, Item 2nd I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as possible out of any Money that I may die possessed of or that may first come into the hands of my Executor from any portion of my estate real or personal.

Item 2nd I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sally Simpson during her Natural Life One hundred and fifty acres of land which includes the premises whereon I now reside, and also all the negro slaves which I now own, ~~Wm~~, Benjamin, Sady and her children, Wm, Mary, Ann, Emma, and William and their increase, (But it is hereby expressly forbidden by me to sell either or all of said slaves until the time arrives which I shall here in after designate) also all my Stock of Horses, Cattle Sheep Pigs &c. and all my farming, Blacksmith and Carpenters Tools, and all my household and Kitchen furniture of all and every description whatever, and also my one share Nigger & horse belonging thereto, and my Carriage, and all the money which may be in hand at my decease (after paying or directed in ~~Testament~~) and all debts which may be owing to me at my decease, I direct that they be collected as soon as possible, and the money to be paid over to my said wife Sally.

Item 3rd I direct that my share in the old Stone Pond from Spauld's River City to Newcastle containing One hundred acres more or less the boundary here containing One hundred acres which is now in the occupancy of (see next) of William St. Tucker and on other tract containing One hundred acres which I purchased from the Rev. Joseph B. Hyams shall all be sold as soon after my decease as may be practicable, and the entire proceeds of said sales to be paid over by my Executor to my said wife Sally. And I also give to her all the Maine Poughkeepsie the which may be in hand or growing at the time of my decease. I have also five shares in the Spauld's Manufacturing Company which are fully paid for, the dividends whereon they may be, my Executor must collect and pay annually over to my said wife. I also own Four Lots in the town of Spauld's, one of which is now in the occupancy of Mr. Evans's son-in-law in the occupancy of Mr. Amey Jones, and one other in the occupancy of Mr. Eliza Simpson all of which are under rent, the fourth lot is a fraction of a lot a part of which I sold to John Young which fraction lay east of that part which I sold to said Young, which will be more fully known by referring to the deeds which I hold for said Lots, all of which are in record, I direct that these four Lots be rented out from year to year, by my Executor, and that he collect the Rents and pay them over, when collected to my said wife Sally. I also give and bequeath unconditionally my Hotel Hotel and Three Acres to my said wife to dispose of in such way as she may think proper.

Item 4th In the event that my said wife Sally should marry again, then immediately after such marriage shall have taken place my Executor is directed to take into his possession all of the aforesaid mentioned property both real and personal including Slaves Money &c. &c. and to sell the same at public sale on a credit of One year, But if my said wife does not marry again then she is to hold and to enjoy my property or hereto set forth in Items 2nd and 3rd, without hindrance from any person during her lifetime and when it shall please God to call her hence, then at her death, my Executor or will take every thing into his possession except the Month and One, both real and personal property and sell it at public sale on a credit of One year, then on the happening of either of the contingencies mentioned in this 4th Item, I direct that the proceeds of such sale or sales be shall be distributed as follows. I give and bequeath to my beloved son George Simpson, my daughter Mary Little, my son in law David Waigman (the husband of my daughter Isabella) my daughter Harrietta wife of John Dickinson, my son Thomas M. Simpson, my daughter Malinda wife of Robert Ward, and my daughter Sally St. wife of John St. Robinson and to the three children now living of my said wife Sally, which she had previous to my marriage with her, I give and bequeath One seventh part of my estate which one seventh part is to be equally divided between my wife said three children, the remaining six shares, except six dollars is to be equally divided between three son of my children and son in law whose names are above set forth, and to my sons John Simpson, Robert M. Simpson Richard Simpson, Benjamin Simpson and to my daughter Elizabeth Hunt and Amey Saunders, to each of these last mentioned of my children, I give to each One dollar to be paid to them, respectively by my Executor for which purpose the exception above of six dollars is intended, my recent good bequeathing a larger sum to my six children, last mentioned is that I have many years past given to each of them a full portion of my estate. Item 5th I do hereby make release and appoint, my esteemed friend and son-in-law David Waigman Executor of this my last will and Testament, he and any others who have to this my will written in one Book of paper at my hand and seal this Twentieth day of April in the year of our One Thousand eight hundred and fifty three signed sealed and published in the presence of us who have subscribed in the presence of the Father and of each other, Wiley L.
