which has been expended for the benefit of the family of the Deceased.

I have allowed the Executors twenty five dollars for their services which I think reasonable.

They report that they have spent the above balance as shown remaining in their hands for necessities for the family, which they were bound to do under the will, and they now take the necessary vouchers to file in this Settlement.

They report that on a Settlement of Summary accounts and notes with J. S. Snodgrass, as Executors of James Snodgrass and with Grover & Snodgrass, they as Executors fell in debt to J. S. Snodgrass for the sum of $527.07 which they closed by note, and have since paid on the same $238. leaving $289.07 besides interest to be paid by their successors. All of which is respectfully submitted to the worshipping Court for confirmation. J. J. Gibrell clerk of White County Court
