The John Willits Jr and Stephen Pledge do that that the Amalgamation Bill of James M Pass was made on the 1st day of July 1858 in our presence to which we were specially required to bear witness by the said James M Pass, in the presence of each other. And it was made in his last sickness in his own habitation or dwelling house, where he had been previously residing and the same is as follows to wit. It was his will and desire that his effects should be disposed of after his decease in the following manner

He wished all his just debts to be paid, and that all the balance of his estate of every description be paid over to his wife Martha D Pledge, to enable her to rear and educate his children and to buy her a home, whenever she saw proper to settle, after consulting with her friends, that he gave his property all to his wife to dispose of all same by her, and that he wanted his children to have a good education if it took all his estate to give it, and that it was his request that John Willits Jr should assist his wife in settling his estate in this manner.
