I John Dew do make and publish this my last will and testament. Herby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made. First I desire that my funeral expences and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my Executors.

Secondly I give and bequeath to John M. Dew my Nephew all my Land where I now live, and which the said John M. Dew now lives, consisting of about One hundred and Eight Acres more or less lying on the waters of the Gallatin Water.

I do hereby nominate and appoint John M. Dew my Executor. In witness whereof I affix to this my last will my hand and seal this the 15th day of November 1859

I signed sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names here in the presence of the Satisfactory witness 15th day of November 1859
Attest Wm. P. Howard
J. Hatcher

In the Name of God Amen
I Thomas Eastland of the County of White in the State of Tennessee advanced in Years and being feeble in Body but of Sound and disposing mind and memory, and calling to mind the frailty of the body, and the uncertainty of life, with all its fleeting and precarious concerns, and the mutability of human affairs and the certainty of death, do, hereby order and constitute the following. My last will and Testament and first and only mendment, my immortal spirit to the almighty God its author and maker and my body to the dust from whence it came, to be buried in a decent manner at the sole discretion of my Executors here in subsequently named.

First after the payment of my funeral expences, I do my will and desire that the whole of my estate of every kind and description whatsoever, which may remain to be left, shall continue and be peaceably enjoyed and possessed by my beloved wife Mary Eastland the more affectionately to and apart but in the support maintenance and education of my infant children. I being my desired and intention, and do hereby declare that all of my property shall remain in my said wife and her heirs forever, and at her death to be disposed of among my children according to her wish and sound discretion in which I hope, and entertain the most implicit reliance.

Secondly When there is now pending in the Chancery Court in the State of Virginia, a Suit for the recovery of an estate in which my wife the aforesaid Mary Eastland is party the recovery will be entitled to a certificate and should be to the governing and controlled by the laws of the Virginia according to the relations she bears to her ancestor from whom said estate descended, died or accrued, and I being my wife and desire that the whole of said estate to which she may be entitled upon a recovery, should inure to her and result to her sole and undivided for the use and purposes herein before mentioned for the education and maintenance of my infant children, and that should I be entitled to any part or portion of said recovery under the distribution laws of Virginia and the said Court, that the whole and entire portion thereof is and shall inure to her sole use and benefit forever. And be applied and disposed of according to her directions either by investing or otherwise as she may deem fit and proper.

Third and lastly I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved and faithful Mary Eastland my sole Executor to this my last will and Testament, and give and charge that it is my wish and desire that she enter into and upon the execution of the my last will and Testament after proving the execution and publication thereof without entering into Bond or security to be required for the execution of the execution trust hereby expressed and intended. It being my intention that the whole of my estate shall vest in her, and to and remain at her own discretion without hindrance from any person or persons or from any other authority whatsoever, hereby testifying and approving and confirming this and more other to be my only and last will and Testament, hereby revoking, annulling, and fully settling and all other wills and bequests by me heretofore made, hereby making this and more other to be my only and last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 10th day of February A.D. 1860.
Signed, sealed, published and declared to be the last considered Testament of Thomas Eastland whose name is hereunto subscribed and
